

50 REASONS TO CELEBRATE OUR 50TH IN GALÁPAGOS

- 1. The debut of *National Geographic Endeavour II
- 2. Free Airfare in celebration on select departures in 2017-18

- 3. The Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic alliance since 2004
- 4. Ecuadorian chocolate on your pillow at night Sweet!
- 5. Carry a letter home from the barrel at Post Office Bay The oldest mail service in the hemisphere.
- 6. Take your best photos Learn with Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructors.

- 7. Ideal itineraries With the perfect sequence of islands and great pace, see something new every day.
- 8. New! An innovative kids and teen program Developed with National Geographic Education.
- 9. Enjoy special touches Wine tasting off Kicker Rock at the golden hour.
- 10. Be among animals unafraid of you. Feel at peace in the universe.
- 11. We brake for whales! Flexibility and spontaneity is the expedition way; if something wonderful happens we'll stop, drop Zodiacs and see.
- 12. Artisan Fund Learn how we help turn trash into treasure.

- 13. New! Eco-friendly, custom-made stand-up paddleboards Made in the USA by Glide.

- 14. Kids, get a Zodiac driver license!
- 15. Kayak on personal explorations With a new fleet of Necky expedition kayaks.
- 16. Snorkel more Or stay dry aboard the glass-bottom Zodiac and with undersea video.
- 17. Choose National Geographic Islander for a yacht-scale experience
- 18. Marine Iguanas They are endemic to Galápagos.
- 19. Zoom around in Zodiacs Our large fleet means everyone gets out on adventures.
- 20. Visit as a friend! We've supported the Charles Darwin Research Station and Galápagos National Park since the beginning.

- 21. Everybody together With one lounge, one dining room with no assigned seating, one language (English), guests form a warm community.
- 22. Love it? Stay on for a second week, see more and get 10% off.
- 23. Galápagos Tortoises See them range free in the highlands and in the Park's breeding program too.
- 24. Erupting volcano! Hey, it could happen, and so it has for us twice already in 50 years.

- 25. Uncommon naturalist team Galápagos natives with a global perspective through Lindblad travels—and many are newly minted as National Geographic field educators.

- 26. See the Southern Cross The Magellanic Clouds and other objects in the equatorial sky—star-gazing on the Observation Deck.

- 27. Meet researchers, scientists and rangers We provide transport for interesting people and projects in the islands.

- 28. New! Scuba Dive with our local partner

- 29. Evening Recap rocks! It's a Lindblad hallmark and fun with hors d'oeuvres and tasty cocktails too.

- 30. Hang out on the Bridge The captain and officers will welcome you. Watch navigation.

- 31. Visit the Tomás de Berlanga School Meet the kids and teachers, donate books to the library.

- 32. Yoga and Stretching Start the morning with our wellness specialist on the Observation Deck.

33. Blue-footed boobies See them dance!

34. Snorkel with playful sea lion pups

35. Waved albatross They mate for life.

- 36. Ecuadorian Feast Lunch in style, a highlight of the week.

- 37. Head onward to Peru & Machu Picchu We handle everything—with National Geographic touches, to make the most of your time in the region.

- 38. Head to the Amazon Combine two expeditions into one awesome experience.

- 39. New! Get more Ecuador With Tropical Andes and Colonial Quito, our new extension featuring Mashpi, a National Geographic Unique Lodge of the World.

- 40. Cross the Equator And transform from a slimy pollywog to trusty shellback. Get a collectible pin that proves you did!

- 41. See Darwin's Toilet Yup that's what they call it.

- 42. BBQ under the stars

- 43. Andean superfoods With 100% Galápagos coffee served. Local, sustainably sourced fish, and Galápagos craft beer, too.

- 44. It's a family affair CEO Sven Lindblad came with his dad in the 1960s, and brought his own four kids to the Galápagos many times. Share the experience with your family.

- 45. Family-friendly ships With convenient, connecting cabins and suites.

- 46. Make a difference on *Endeavour III! Together with your help, we support conservation in Galápagos.

- 47. Don't pack snorkel gear We have everything you need onboard, including wetsuits.

- 48. Solos welcome! National Geographic Endeavour II has nine dedicated solo cabins.

- 49. Take home a video Our videographer chronicles your expedition so you can stay in the moment; it's shot, edited and delivered to you during the expedition.

- 50. Fifty years of experience in Galápagos And you'll see when you join us, experience matters!