ANTARCTICA
CELEBRATING THE LINDBLAD EXPEDITIONS HERITAGE

50 YEARS
EXPLORING THE WHITE CONTINENT & BEYOND

NEW:
OUR FIRST EVER CIRCUMNAVIGATION:
FALKLANDS 360°

ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER & NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC ORION | 2016-2017
DEAR TRAVELER,

This 2016 Antarctic season is a landmark one for us—as we celebrate 50 years of Lindblad expeditions to the white continent. Our 50-year anniversary dates from January 1966, when my father, Lars-Eric Lindblad, was inspired to lead the first-ever ‘citizen explorer’ expedition to Antarctica, previously the exclusive province of professional explorers and scientists.

We celebrate his personal vision and courage; it was certainly an imaginative leap in the tourism industry of his day, and created a legacy of innovation that our company maintains today. (With a hat tip to the vision and courage of the fifty-seven intrepid travelers who dared to join him in going where no tourist had gone before. They left novel “tracks” that intrepid travelers now follow 50 years later.)

Most importantly, we celebrate his motivation: my father believed that seeing the planet’s remote wild places with one’s own eyes would make each visitor an advocate for preserving and protecting. His conviction earned him the designation of ‘father of eco-tourism.’ And it left the legacy that we honor and sustain today in our deep commitment to conservation through the Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic Fund.

So, we look backwards this season—towards our founding and to the wider history of Antarctica exploration. As you’ll see on page 14, our roster of Global Perspectives Speakers is a veritable ‘Who’s Who’—giving you the opportunity to share an adventure with some of the greatest names in polar exploration.

And, we also look forward—to our 1st-ever circumnavigation of the Falklands. We’ve been visiting these fascinating islands for decades, and have become accustomed to the usual pre- and post-visit reactions. Pre-voyage some guests are inclined to wonder: “Why are we spending time there? On to Antarctica!” And once in the Falklands, the reaction is inevitably—“Why must we leave?! Can’t we stay longer?” Now we can—for an in-depth experience of its beauty and wonder. And as an added benefit, we’ll be accompanied for part of the expedition by a member of Falklands Conservation to give us an insider look at the efforts involved in preserving the islands’ extraordinary wildlife.

And for the collectors among you, we will again be issuing our distinctive vintage-style Antarctica parka, this time with a limited edition 50th Anniversary patch, inspired by the sterling silver pin my father created for his Antarctic guests many years ago.

So, if you’ve been dreaming of penguins and gorgeous ice, I hope you’ll make this the year. And if you’ve already been to Antarctica and had your appetite whetted, join us for the “feast” of our first-ever Falklands 360º.

All the best,

Sven-Olof Lindblad
“I looked down at the bottom of the map, unmarked by airline routes. Then I noticed that Antarctica wasn’t even on the map. My enchantment with Antarctica had been so great since childhood that I wondered why I had never thought of it before. I was aware that the idea of setting up tours to that frozen continent would be tangled with complications. Going there might even be impossible. But inspired by the koumiss*, I boldly announced to everyone, “Our next exploratory tour will be to a place that isn’t even on the map.”

—FROM LARS-ERIC LINDBLAD’S 1983 AUTOBIOGRAPHY, PASSPORT TO ANYWHERE

MONGOLIAN CAMPFIRE, ANTARCTIC INSPIRATION

This is the romantic context in which Lars-Eric Lindblad, widely considered the father of eco-tourism, invented new possibilities—not only for the fifty-seven stalwart passengers of his pioneering 1966 Antarctic expedition, but for the thousands of curious, intelligent citizen explorers who would follow in their wake, ready and willing to follow Lindblad’s lead and go where only explorers or scientists had gone before. As Sven Lindblad, his son, has said: “It’s remarkable to think of the courage and vision that took.”

Lars-Eric Lindblad invented the category of ‘expedition travel,’ and created a model of exploration that we still follow today. And it’s this courage, vision, and invention that we celebrate as we head into our 50th Anniversary Antarctic season, with the knowledge and expertise we’ve earned in the many years since the first guests embarked a Lindblad expedition. Join us for a historic return to our roots!

* “Consisting of fermented mare’s milk, slightly effervescent and carrying a wallop.” Lars-Eric and his recon team were drinking koumiss around a campfire in Mongolia in 1964, watching the distant spectacular launch of a Russian missile.
Active exploration is a hallmark of our modern Antarctic expeditions—here guests hike past a gentoo penguin colony in the scenic Neumayer Channel. VINTAGE MATERIALS FROM LARS-ERIC LINDBLAD’S PIONEERING EXPEDITIONS

Sterling silver commemorative pin, stamped ‘Antarctica Expedition 1967,’ inspires our 50th anniversary patch design (page 6) and the original itinerary from the pioneering Lindblad expedition.

The original logo of Lindblad Travel, founded by Lars-Eric Lindblad in 1958.

Early ship logs were handwritten by the top scientists and naturalists accompanying Lindblad’s expeditions. Often, drawings to illustrate sightings were included, like these above by renowned artist, Robert Bateman.
In 1996, the U.S. Board on Geographic Names recognized Lindblad’s contribution to Antarctica by officially designating a section of Charcot Bay as “Lindblad Cove.” Their letter stated that, “A noted conservationist, Mr. Lindblad operated the first cruise to Antarctica in 1966 and was a leader in the concept of expedition tourism as a means of environmental awareness.”

Today, National Geographic Explorer occasionally calls at Lindblad Cove. A toast is invariably made to the memory of Lars-Eric by the ship’s staff, many of whom first traveled to Antarctica with him on board the Lindblad Explorer.

CELEBRATE OUR 50TH—RECEIVE A LIMITED EDITION COMMEMORATIVE PARKA

Lars-Eric’s innovative exploits in travel have guided us over the course of our 50-year history—through the era defined by Sven Lindblad’s leadership of Special Expeditions, to the current planet-roaming alliance of Lindblad Expeditions and National Geographic.

It’s this continuum of exploration—adventuresome, intellectually rewarding, mind-body connecting and spirit-affirming—that we now celebrate. Choose to join our 50th Anniversary Antarctic expeditions, and you’ll return home with a limited edition commemorative patch on your exclusive Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic parka.

Debuted in 2014, our vintage-inspired parka has proved so popular it is now the emblem of a Lindblad Antarctic experience. Based on historic expedition wear, including the parka worn by Lars-Eric Lindblad on the cover of his autobiography, Passport To Anywhere, our parka combines vintage style with high-tech fabrication for maximum comfort. It’s the ultimate souvenir of your Antarctic adventure, a keepsake you’ll wear with pride for all the years you’ll savor the memories, and the photos, of your Antarctic expedition.

ULTIMATE POLAR EXPEDITION SHIPS

National Geographic Explorer, flagship of the Lindblad-National Geographic fleet, is a purpose-built expedition ship, and the only newly converted ship whose design is informed by 50 years of Lindblad’s polar expedition experience, plus the collective 170 years of expedition experience the Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic alliance represents.

National Geographic Orion, the most recent addition to the fleet, is also a purpose-built expedition ship, commissioned in 2004 and constructed to traverse vast expanses of the Southern Ocean, from the tropics to the polar reaches.

Both are ice-class polar operating vessels, built to demanding technical specifications with DNV Ice 1A, ice-classed hulls. Both are beautiful ships as well, designed with careful attention to details and comfort. Explorer accommodates 148 guests in 81 outside-facing cabins. Orion accommodates 102 guests in 53 outside-facing cabins. Both ships are equipped with state-of-the-art tools for exploration, making them each an unparalleled base for explorations, and enabling the fullest expression of our signature style: an intimate, learning-oriented expedition environment.
Guests photograph a crabeater seal amid the otherworldly Antarctic ice.

From left: Our expedition staff assists guests on a Zodiac landing on the seventh continent, and with this exclusive floating bridge apparatus, guests don’t have to worry about “wet landings”; our innovative mobile platform lets us embark on a kayak exploration from virtually anywhere in the ice; guests join the officers on the bridge to watch them navigate the Antarctic ice.
COOL TOOLS ABOARD ENSURE EXTRAORDINARY EXPERIENCES

National Geographic Explorer and National Geographic Orion are the only ships exploring Antarctica, South Georgia, and the Falklands with this complete array of exploration tools. Combine these tools, designed to maximize your opportunities for up-close, personal adventures, with our generous expedition staff-to-guest ratio of 1:10, and you have the opportunity for unprecedented and life-enhancing encounters with Antarctica’s beauty and wildness.

- A Remotely Operated Vehicle (ROV) that can explore depths of up to 1,000 feet to reveal the fascinating polar ocean
- A Remote-controlled Crow’s Nest Camera with real-time footage broadcast on high definition LCD video screens within each cabin
- An Electronic Chart System that broadcasts as a channel in the cabins
- A Chart Room with nautical maps and a coffee, tea, hot cocoa station
- Open Invitation to visit the Bridge to observe ship navigation first-hand
- The Observation Lounge, providing panoramic vistas of scenic destinations
- A Fleet of Mark-V Zodiacs can go almost anywhere, and are the finest and most tested expedition landing craft in the world
- A Fleet of Double Kayaks (36 on Explorer; 24 on Orion) that allow guests to kayak in pristine environments. A specially designed kayak launch platform enables kayak deployment from anywhere
- A Professional Video Chronicler to capture every facet of your unique adventure, and make a professionally edited DVD available for purchase by departure
TRAVEL WITH AN A+ EXPEDITION TEAM

The comment cards we receive from guests after every voyage consistently express the same sentiments: “Outstanding expedition staff.” Our expedition leaders, known as ELs to staff and guests alike, are exceptional leaders who attract and inspire the naturalists, marine biologists, geologists, historians, climatologists, and undersea specialists who accompany our voyages. Collectively, these specialists have hundreds of years of experience, and many are long-tenured polar veterans. They are the informative experts with whom explorers want to travel repeatedly; and the engaging conversationalists with whom curious travelers want to share drinks or dinner.

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN THE OCEAN WHILE STAYING COMPLETELY DRY

Inspired by Jacques Cousteau, Sylvia Earle, Bob Ballard, and other National Geographic explorers, National Geographic Explorer and Orion are the only polar expedition ships that travel with an undersea specialist. They dive with a video camera and bring back footage for all to watch in vivid HD, in the dry warmth and comfort of the lounge, perhaps with a cocktail in hand and hors d’oeuvres at the ready. Always interesting, it can also be a revelation—the Antarctic footage you see may be of marine life few scientists, or human eyes for that matter, have ever seen.

Explorer and Orion are also equipped with an ROV (Remotely Operated Vehicle) capable of exploring depths up to 1,000 feet to capture vibrant footage for viewing in the lounge.

Lindblad Expeditions and National Geographic have joined forces to further inspire the world through expedition travel. Our collaboration in exploration, research, technology and conservation will provide extraordinary travel experiences and disseminate geographic knowledge around the globe.
There is no clearer symbol of the everlasting connection between expedition and photography than the presence of a National Geographic photographer aboard every National Geographic Explorer and Orion voyage. Travel with these top pros and you’ll pick up tips and advice in incredible field conditions. You’ll share every photo op, and you might just land some cover-worthy shots yourself.

Joining us this season are National Geographic photographers Kip Evans, Krista Rossow, Jeff Mauritzen, Annie Griffiths, Jim Richardson, Rich Reid, Susan Seubert, Sisse Brimberg, and Tim Laman.

A guest prepares to capture the wildlife up close.
Memories of Zodiac and kayak rides around stunning turquoise icebergs will stay with you forever.
“COME FOR THE PENGUINS, COME BACK FOR THE ICE”

This phrase has talismanic powers for Antarctic travelers. Talk to anyone who has experienced the White Continent, and you’ll hear it immediately. And for anyone who has yet to visit Antarctica, it has the solemn power of a prophesy—guaranteed.

Choose to visit during the Antarctic spring of November and December, and you’ll see the penguins you’ve come for starting to nest, beginning the intriguing courtship rituals that will keep them together and allow them to raise a healthy chick. And you’ll experience National Geographic Explorer and National Geographic Orion’s unique capabilities in the early ice—as our captains guide them through floes, looking for wildlife, and if nature allows, driving into the fast ice to allow us to disembark for a walk on a frozen sea. And throughout the season, the legendary ice, the ice you’ll come back for—larger than you ever dreamed possible, bergs of impossible beauty, each with its own shape and color—studs the passages, bays, and inlets we’ll explore in wonder. Our expedition team will take advantage of the 20 hours of austral daylight to show you every facet of Antarctica, in every way possible: by Zodiac, kayak, or on hikes to ridges for views of towering mountains and cascading glaciers.

Antarctica will touch the deepest part of your soul. The things you’ll see there will tattoo themselves on your heart. And the National Geographic photographers aboard our ships will help ensure you capture it in the best photos of your life.
JOURNEY TO ANTARCTICA: THE WHITE CONTINENT

14 DAYS/11 NIGHTS—ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER AND NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC ORION

PRICES FROM: $13,360 to $27,520 (See pages 34-35 for complete National Geographic Explorer prices; see pages 36-37 for National Geographic Orion prices.)

Traveling aboard the state-of-the-art National Geographic Explorer or National Geographic Orion, encounter the spectacular Antarctic Peninsula and the surrounding islands and waterways. Glide around enormous icebergs by Zodiac, walk along beaches covered with thousands of penguins, and kayak amid abundant marine life.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

▶ Explore the world’s last great wilderness in the company of a team of top naturalists during Lindblad’s 50th anniversary year in Antarctica.
▶ View magnificent mountains, towering icebergs, and ice formations that make up the dramatic Antarctic landscape.
▶ Cruise aboard sturdy Zodiac landing craft in search of seals.
▶ Kayak in protected waters, paddling around icebergs as penguins swim nearby.
▶ On shore observe thousands of penguins, including gentoo, Adélie, and chinstrap.

EXPERIENCE & EXPERTISE

Our unparalleled team is key to an in-depth experience, and our generous expedition staff-to-guest ratio of 1:10 means more choice in activities, and more diverse personalities and interests you can gravitate to. An expedition leader, 8 naturalists/historians, a National Geographic photographer, a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor, undersea specialist, video chronicler, and a wellness specialist all contribute to your experience of the wonders. And a Global Perspectives guest speaker adds relevant insight (Explorer only).

Diving gentoo penguin.
DAYS 1 AND 2: U.S./BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA (EXPLORER) OR SANTIAGO, CHILE (ORION)
Depart on an overnight flight to Buenos Aires (Explorer) or Santiago (Orion). Settle into the Sofitel Buenos Aires Hotel (or similar) before seeing the city’s Beaux-Arts palaces and the famous balcony associated with Eva Perón. Or check into Santiago’s Ritz-Carlton Hotel before our guided overview of this vibrant city backed by the inspiring Andes. (Day 2: L)

DAY 3: FLY TO USHUAIA /EMBARK
Fly by private charter to Ushuaia, the southernmost city in the world. Join a catamaran cruise of the Beagle Channel before embarking our ship. (B,L,D)

DAY 4: AT SEA/DRAKE PASSAGE
While crossing the legendary Drake Passage, spot albatross and other seabirds that glide alongside the ship. (B,L,D)

DAYS 5–10: EXPLORING ANTARCTICA
With long hours of daylight at this time of year, we have ample opportunity to explore the Antarctic Peninsula and the surrounding islands. In keeping with the nature of an expedition, the schedule is flexible so that we can take advantage of the unexpected—watching whales at play off the bow, taking an after-dinner Zodiac cruise, or heading out on an extra landing. We anticipate making Zodiac landings each day to hike, kayak among the ice floes, and experience close encounters with wildlife. You may have the thrill of watching our powerful ship crunch through the pack ice, or step ashore to thousands of Adélie and chinstrap penguins. You’ll learn how climate change affects the penguin populations, and how best to capture images of penguins from a National Geographic photographer. Back aboard, our undersea specialist may present video from that day’s dive or show rare images taken up to 1,000 feet below the surface using our ROV. Our expert staff will craft an expedition where you will learn, see and experience more. (B,L,D)

DAYS 11 AND 12: AT SEA
Enjoy the ship’s amenities as the Antarctic coast disappears from view. Round the southernmost tip of South America, and see the meeting of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Celebrate your voyage at a farewell dinner on board. (B,L,D)

DAYS 13 AND 14: DISEMBARK
USHUAIA, ARGENTINA/BUENOS AIRES (EXPLORER) OR SANTIAGO, CHILE (ORION)/U.S.
Disembark in Ushuaia. Fly by charter to Buenos Aires or Santiago and connect with your overnight flight home. (Day 13: B,L)

Why stop at Antarctica when there is so much more to discover? Follow in Shackleton’s footsteps and explore more to experience Serengeti-like masses of wildlife.

Dense colonies of king penguins, fur seals, elephant seals, and macaroni penguins. Slopes thick with grey-headed, black-browed, and light-mantled sooty albatross—nearly a third of all birds of the species nest here—and that’s only South Georgia. Add the Falklands, with its amusing rockhopper penguins in the tussocks, black-browed albatross homing to windward ledges, and the resolute Englishness of the sheep camps dotting the landscape, and you have one of the most life-enhancing travel experiences on the planet.
Clockwise from top: A vast king penguin colony spread out over the South Georgia landscape; black-browed albatross colony, Falkland Islands; baby elephant seal pup.

PRICES FROM: $23,100 to $44,550 (See pages 34-35 for complete National Geographic Explorer prices; see pages 36-37 for National Geographic Orion prices.)

This voyage has it all: the impossible beauty of Antarctic ice, the vast king penguin colonies of South Georgia, and the Falkland’s amazing bird colonies. Traveling aboard one of our ice-class expedition ships National Geographic Explorer or National Geographic Orion, spend five days discovering the Antarctic Peninsula. Stroll through lively crowds of penguins in stunning South Georgia, and hike the shores of the Falkland Islands. Experience boundless wildlife and captivating beauty as you venture into some of the planet’s most unspoiled landscapes.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS
▶ Trace the story of Sir Ernest Shackleton’s fateful journey to South Georgia and toast at his gravesite.
▶ See three distinct regions, and benefit from our 50 years of experience here.
▶ Glide in a kayak or Zodiac past massive icebergs.
▶ Observe tens of thousands of king penguins on a single beach.

EXPERIENCE & EXPERTISE
Our experienced expedition leader and team of naturalists are your conduit to an extraordinary experience. And the National Geographic photographer and Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor on board, ours exclusively, are key to capturing the incredible wildlife. Our video chronicler will record the entire voyage. The undersea specialist will reveal the deep, while our wellness specialist helps you feel the “tonic of wildness.” There’s a generous expedition staff-to-guest ratio of 1:10. And a Global Perspectives guest speaker adds relevant insight (Explorer only).

SOUTH GEORGIA AND THE FALKLANDS

19 DAYS/16 NIGHTS—ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER
PRICES FROM: $16,530 to $31,920 (See pages 34-35 for complete prices.)

Steeped in Shackleton and whaling lore, covered mostly in glaciers, South Georgia explodes with life: gentoo and macaroni penguins, enormous elephant seals and a thriving fur seal population. Here on South Georgia you can observe one of the world’s great wildlife spectacles: literally tens of thousands stately king penguins on a single beach. See the human face of the region in the Falklands, reminiscent of Great Britain, with grazing sheep, tea and crumpets. And in this privileged place, the albatross reveal the beauty of their mysterious lives.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

▶ Hike in the footsteps of Sir Ernest Shackleton’s fated Imperial Trans-Antarctica Expedition aboard Endurance.
▶ See stately king penguins—literally tens of thousands on a single beach in South Georgia.
▶ Observe magnificent albatross in the Falklands, and see Magellanic penguins peeking from their burrows.
▶ Paddle a kayak amid curious fur seals, and explore the isolated bays by Zodiac.
▶ Compare camera settings side-by-side with a National Geographic photographer.

King penguins as far as the eye can see, South Georgia.
MAR. 6 AND 7: U.S./BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA
Depart on an overnight flight to Buenos Aires, Argentina’s capital. Check into the excellent Sofitel Buenos Aires Hotel before having a guided overview of the city, seeing its Beaux-Arts palaces and the famous balcony forever associated with Eva Perón. (Mar. 7: L)

MAR. 8: BUENOS AIRES/USHUAIA/EMBARK
Fly to Ushuaia, the southernmost city in the world. Join a catamaran cruise of the Beagle Channel before embarking our ship. (B,L,D)

MAR. 9: AT SEA IN THE SOUTH ATLANTIC
Settle into shipboard life, listening to informal discussions from our naturalist staff to prepare us for the wilderness ahead in the Falklands. Spend time on deck and on the bridge, scanning for seabirds, notably the albatross. (B,L,D)

MAR. 10 AND 11: FALKLAND ISLANDS
Each Falkland Island is a variation on the theme of topographical beauty with white-sand beaches, vaulting cliffs, windswept moors and the sunlit yellows and sage greens of waving tussock grass. The Falklands boast thousands of irresistible gentoo, rockhopper and Magellanic penguins, as well as fur and elephant seals. Our visit to Port Stanley offers a chance to meet the hospitable locals, hoist a few at a local pub, and stroll this remote Victorian town. (B,L,D)

MAR. 12 AND 13: AT SEA
During our days at sea, we learn about the fascinating history of Antarctic exploration, as well as the flora, fauna and geology of South Georgia. A lookout is kept to identify the seabirds that follow us: wandering albatross, prions and black-browed albatross. (B,L,D)

MAR. 14-18: SOUTH GEORGIA ISLAND
Explore the spectacular coastline of South Georgia Island. In keeping with the nature of an expedition, our schedule is flexible with opportunities for walking, hiking, kayaking and Zodiac excursions. Sailing along the coast, we plan to make stops every day including Grytviken, the final resting place of Shackleton, and Stromness Bay, where Shackleton, Tom Crean and Frank Worsley finally reached aid at a whaling station. And, on a single beach, you will see thousands of king penguins! (B,L,D)

MAR. 19 AND 20: AT SEA
With whales beneath and birds above, head up to the bridge. Or spend the day enjoying the ship’s spa, fitness center, library, and observation deck. (B,L,D)

MAR. 21: FALKLAND ISLANDS
Our journey across the South Atlantic Ocean takes us once more to the island archipelago that teems with nature and wildlife. Take a last walk along the beautiful white-sand beaches, meander through tussock grass or sit atop a cliff and ponder the views. (B,L,D)

MAR. 22: AT SEA
One last chance to catch up on your reading in the library and send emails home saying “Don’t want this to end.” (B,L,D)

MAR. 23 AND 24: USHUAIA, ARGENTINA/DISEMBARK/BUENOS AIRES/U.S.
Disembark in Ushuaia and fly to Buenos Aires by private charter. Connect to your flight home, arriving the next day. (Mar. 23: B,L)

Say “South Georgia,” ask people to free-associate and most will respond, “Shackleton.” He arrived at South Georgia after the most famous navigational feat in history—the 800-mile open ocean crossing in the 22-foot James Caird. At the end of the two-year ordeal all 28 men survived.

EXPAND YOUR TRAVEL HORIZONS: EXPERIENCE TWO ‘FIRST-EVER’ OPPORTUNITIES

For several decades now, the Falkland Islands have been included on our Antarctica-and-beyond itineraries, and guests have consistently commented: “Want more time there!” So, our development team has slated our first-ever circumnavigation of the Falklands for October 2016.

The Falklands are a legendary eco-destination for UK and pan-EU travelers. And now our guests will have the opportunity for the deep steep in wildness the Falklands deserves, and richly rewards.

And within our pioneering ‘first’ Falklands 360º are other firsts, as well. We’ll not only linger, as you’ll see on the following pages, in the Falklands’ important conservation sites (Steeple Jason Island, for example, holds the largest colony of black-browed albatross in the world—over 150,000 breeding pairs), we’ll be accompanied for part of the voyage by a member of The Falklands Conservation for an insider’s eye view. And, as a gesture of respect for their work, we will adopt a king penguin in your name—and you’ll get to name yours. And there’s more.

On November 6, 2015, National Geographic Explorer was the first foreign-flagged vessel admitted into the protected waters of Staten Island, Argentina, off-limits to tourism since 1923. Choose to join us, and you will be the second wave of Lindblad explorers to visit this astounding wildlife sanctuary. To preview the wonders ahead, be sure to use the link below to see naturalist/photographer Eric Guth’s exuberant Staten Island blog post.

As another rarity—we’ll send you Jules Verne’s “Lighthouse at the End of The World,” a Robinsonade/marine thriller written about Staten Island, with our compliments.

Above from top: You’ll see colorful houses and classic British telephone booths in Stanley. The southernmost cathedral in the world is located in Stanley, the Anglican Christ Church Cathedral. FALKLANDS 360°

13 DAYS/10 NIGHTS—ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC ORION
PRICES FROM: $10,850 to $20,990 (See pages 36-37 for complete prices.)

Embark on our first-ever circumnavigation of the Falklands aboard National Geographic Orion to discover a 'new' destination and a true ‘capital of wildness.’ Nature enthusiasts, photographers, birders, and travelers alike will savor this time among the astonishing creatures and engaging islanders that thrive in this remoteness—plus the chance to visit Argentina’s extraordinary Staten Island.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

▶ Discover a profusion of wildlife: an astounding 150,000 breeding pairs of black-browed albatross; battling 8,000-pound elephant seals; rockhopper, Magellanic, and king penguins.
▶ Explore Argentina’s Staten Island, an area historically off-limits to tourism since 1923, it is a land of extreme biodiversity that few have seen.
▶ See one of the world’s rarest—and some say most aggressive—raptors, the striated caracara, known locally as the Johnny Rook.
▶ Visit the charming communities of the Falklands and experience life in a far-flung outpost.

EXPERIENCE & EXPERTISE

Our unparalleled expedition team is key to an in-depth experience, and our generous staff-to-guest ratio of 1:10 means more choice in activities, and more diverse personalities and interests you can gravitate to. An expedition leader, 8 naturalists/historians, a National Geographic photographer, a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor, undersea specialist, video chronicler, and a wellness specialist all contribute to your experience of the wonders.

Visit our website to read staff and guest speaker bios for this expedition.
DAYS 1 AND 2: U.S./SANTIAGO, CHILE
Fly overnight to Santiago. Settle in before an overview of Santiago’s Plaza de Armas, main square, and Presidential Palace. Overnight at the Ritz Carlton Santiago Hotel. (Day 2: L)

DAY 3: FLY TO USHUAIA, ARGENTINA/EMBARK
Fly by private charter flight to Ushuaia, the southernmost city in the world. Join a catamaran cruise of the scenic Beagle Channel before embarking our ship. (B,L,D)

DAY 4: ISLA DE LOS ESTADOS (STATEN ISLAND), ARGENTINA
Explore Staten Island by special permission, one of the newest nature reserves in the Southern Hemisphere. Discover colonies of seabirds and marine mammals along its mountainous, forested landscapes and rugged fjords. (B,L,D)

DAY 5: STEELE JASON/FALKLAND ISLANDS
Steeple Jason is one of the most remote, windswept, and arguably most important wildlife conservation sites in the Falklands. See the largest colony of black-browed albatross in the world—over 150,000 breeding pairs, and the world’s rarest species of raptor—the striated caracara, locally known as the Johnny Rook. (B,L,D)

DAY 6: CARCASS/SAUNDERS
In the morning hike Carcass Island to view king penguins, myriad bird life, and sweeping views of the harbor. Enjoy a lavish tea with our longtime friends the McGill family, owners of the island. During the afternoon on Saunders Island visit a white sandy beach, see gentoo and Magellanic penguins, and look for Commerson’s dolphins surfing the waves. (B,L,D)

DAY 7: STANLEY
Options abound in the Falkland’s largest and most populated city. Take a guided tour to experience local “English” life; visit the family-owned and operated Long Island Farm for demonstrations of pea harvesting and sheep shearing along with a local tea service; hike to Mount William, the historic site of a large battle during the Falklands War; or take a short walk from the pier to the Stanley Growers Hydroponics Gardens that produces all the fresh produce for the small community of 2,500. (B,L,D)

DAY 8: GEORGE AND BARREN ISLANDS
Explore the rarely visited George and Barren Islands, where we first landed in 2001. Zodiac cruise and hike to encounter sea lions, elephant seals, and Magellanic penguins. The afternoon brings us to the local settlement and a typical English tea. (B,L,D)

DAY 9: FOX BAY
Visit a local ranch for a superb barbecue. Mix with locals and ranch hands to learn about their ways of life. (B,L,D)

DAY 10: NEW ISLAND NATURE RESERVE
Former property owners and our expedition team members Tony and Kim Chater will share this nature reserve that seeks to return the island to its previous glory before whalers and sealers introduced predators. Sheep graze on a limited fenced-in area, and experiments to re-establish tussock habitat in another area can be observed. From Settlement Harbour, walk to a colony of rockhopper penguins, black-browed albatross, king shags, and visit the newly established historical museum. (B,L,D)

DAY 11: AT SEA
As we sail to Ushuaia, there’s time to edit photos with your National Geographic photographer, journal, or just relax. (B,L,D)

DAY 12 AND 13: DISEMBARK USHUAIA/FLY TO SANTIAGO/HOME
Disembark in Ushuaia after breakfast. Fly to Santiago for connecting overnight flights home. (Day 12: B,L)

EXPEDITION DETAILS
DATES: 2016: October 19, 28

GET A PENGUIN!
Join this pioneering expedition and we’ll adopt a king penguin on your behalf to benefit Falklands Conservation. See our website for details: expeditions.com/getapenguin

See king penguins, and “adopt” one with our compliments.

Falklands Conservation is the charity taking action for nature in the Falkland Islands. UK Registered Charity Number: 1073859. Company Registration Number: 03661322. Falklands Conservation is a company limited by guarantee in England and Wales.
AN A+ EXPEDITION CREW IN THE HOUSE TOO

Our hotel managers and head chefs are integral to every expedition—as important to the intricate calculus of happiness aboard our ships as the expedition leaders and the captains. Their ability to respond flexibly keeps our vital expeditionary spirit fed, so to speak. You can eagerly rush to the deck for a spontaneous dinner hour wildlife sighting, without worry that it’s wreaking havoc in the kitchen: dinner will still be superb.

Like the ships’ connectedness to the outdoors, each meal is a window of sorts, reflecting the region through fresh ingredients sourced locally from providers who act sustainably. Whether you’re hiking the tussock grasses in the Falklands to see nesting black-browed albatross, photographing penguins in Antarctica or elephant seals in South Georgia, you’re building an appetite—for food, comfort and personal service—these team members are dedicated to satisfying.

Serge Dansereau, owner and chef of Sydney’s beautiful Bather’s Pavilion restaurant, has been a transformative force in Australian cuisine since the ’80s. His commitment to natural foods, sustainable producers and responsibly harvested seafood mirrors Lindblad-National Geographic’s own. The force behind Orion’s celebrated menus, he continues to design National Geographic Orion’s menus, and train her kitchen and waitstaff.
THE PERFECT ENDING TO ACTIVE DAYS

Decorated in relaxing earth tones, National Geographic Explorer has 81 cabins, including 4 suites with balconies, 9 cabins with balconies, and 14 solo cabins, and all are inviting and rewarding. National Geographic Orion’s private spaces are as alluring as her public ones. Decorated in rich jewel tones, she has 53 cabins, including 9 suites with balconies, and 4 solo cabins.

All cabins feature deluxe bedding, our signature feather duvets and thick terry robes. In addition, each has a flat screen TV with movie programming, as well as channels broadcasting the live feed from our remote-controlled crow’s nest camera, and our electronic chart system. And all cabins are equipped with Ethernet connections, plugs for your own laptop and phone or camera charger.

CONSIDERING ANTARCTICA?

There are 6 important questions to ask before you decide with whom to book your Antarctic adventure. This guide answers them all:

1. What kind of ship is best?
2. What safety features are vital?
3. What is the travel operator’s experience?
4. How active will your Antarctic experience be?
5. What does the travel operator offer in terms of staff and onboard experts?
6. What is their environmental record & commitment to conservation?

Antarctica is the wildest, most remote and least predictable geography on earth. However, because many cruise lines, sensing a business opportunity, have begun to offer voyages to Antarctica, many travelers may be lulled into a false sense that Antarctica is now somehow “tame.”

This guidebook was designed to give travelers information they can use to sort out the options. It will help you make the choice that will best ensure your safety and the quality of your experience.

Not Included: Air transportation (except where shown as included), extensions, passport, visa, immigration fees, meals not indicated, travel protection plan, items of a personal nature, such as alcoholic beverages, e-mail, voyage DVD, laundry. Gratuities to ship’s crew are at your discretion.

Airfare: For all programs, airfare is an additional cost unless otherwise indicated. Sample airfares are subject to change. We will gladly assist in making your air arrangements for a $50 per person service fee.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Reservations: To reserve your place, an advance payment is required at the time of reservation. The per person advance payment amount varies by program, and is outlined in this brochure on pages 35 and 37, as well as on our website. Holiday departure dates and certain longer voyages may carry additional advance deposit requirements due to high demand for these voyages. Payment is accepted by Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, or by check.

Receipt of your initial payment indicates your acceptance of our complete Terms and Conditions. We require written notice at the time of reservation for any physical condition, diet, or treatment requiring special attention.

Once your reservation is confirmed, we urge you to use your personalized online account for important information to help you prepare for your voyage. Managing your documents online will facilitate fast and accurate communication, and allow you to provide us with pertinent details we require, in order to complete your reservation. Your online account gives you access to your Expedition Guide, which includes valuable information specific to your voyage. You can also use your online account to make easy payments, view recommended flights and reading material, packing list, and more.

Final Payment: Final payment is due 120 days prior to departure. Payment schedules may vary for Holiday departures and certain longer voyages, due to high demand for these voyages. We reserve the right to cancel your reservation if payment has not been received by final payment due date.

Travel Protection Plan: We strongly recommend that you take advantage of our Travel Protection Plan. This plan offers comprehensive coverage to protect you from cancellation fees, costs incurred due to trip delays/interruption, medical assistance, and damaged or lost baggage, and provides medical assistance and evacuation during your travels. Our Travel Protection Plan is available for U.S. and Canadian residents only, and may be purchased any time prior to final payment due date. Travel Protection premiums are non-refundable once plan is purchased.

Smoking Policy: Smoking is allowed only in designated outdoor areas.

Responsibility and Other Terms & Conditions: Certain other provisions concerning, among other things, limitations of Lindblad Expeditions’ and the National Geographic Society’s liability for loss of property, injury, illness or death during the voyage will be provided to all guests on the ship’s ticket sent prior to departure, and are also available on our website at www.expeditions.com, terms, or upon request. By registering for a trip, the guest agrees to all such terms and conditions.

Note: Itineraries and prices listed in this brochure are valid as of publication date, and are subject to change. Under normal conditions, the total expedition cost is guaranteed at the time of booking. However, the published price is determined far in advance of initial departure on the basis of then-existing projections of fuel and other costs. In the event we determine that current costs create an unsustainable financial model, including but not limited to increases in the price of fuel, currency fluctuations, increases in government taxes or levies, or increased security costs, we reserve the right to pass on these costs to you, to cover such unexpected increases. We will always provide a transparent accounting of the reason for such an increase in costs.

United States Tour Operators Association
$1 Million Travelers Assistance Program
Lindblad Expeditions, as an Active Member of USTOA, is required to post $1 Million with USTOA to be used to reimburse, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the USTOA $1 Million Travelers Assistance Program, the advance payments of Lindblad Expeditions customers in the unlikely event of Lindblad Expeditions bankruptcy, insolvency or cessation of business. Further, you should understand that the $1 Million posted by Lindblad Expeditions may be sufficient to provide only a partial recovery of the advance payments received by Lindblad Expeditions. More details of the USTOA Travelers Assistance Program may be obtained by writing to USTOA at 345 Seventh Avenue, Suite 1801, New York, New York 10001, or by email to information@ustoa.com or by visiting their website at www.USTOA.com.

This cancellation policy applies to expeditions, extensions, as well as all other additional services.

The effective date of a cancellation will be the date on which your cancellation notice is received. Note: Airline cancellation policies vary by carrier, as well as the type of fare used to issue your ticket.

Any revisions you make within the cancellation penalty period, such as departure date or choice of voyage, are subject to cancellation fees.

Cancellation policy for certain longer voyages and Holiday departures may vary due to high demand for these voyages. Our Group cancellation policies are listed in the Terms and Conditions section of our website, or you may call us for details. We stress the importance of purchasing a travel protection plan to protect yourself from fees in the event you need to cancel your reservation.
