NORWAY AND THE ARCTIC

ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER | 2013
As astonishing as the photos in National Geographic
And an exhilarating life adventure:

A Lindblad-National Geographic
High Arctic Expedition

Standing on the foredeck as National Geographic Explorer navigates the ice—hearing the satisfying crunch—will be an unforgettable experience.
Dear Traveler,

We have been exploring Arctic Svalbard for some 30 years. It is a remarkable region on many fronts—stunning scenery with massive glaciers and ice shelves; tundra alive with wildflowers; huge aggregations of seabirds migrating for the rich feeding grounds here; and, of course, polar bears, not only numerous but relatively free of fear, as hunting was banned in 1973. So the photographs you see in this brochure depicting close encounters were all taken from the ship or from a Zodiac, often initiated by curious bears themselves.

Over the course of our years of annual exploration, we have learned much. In particular, we have focused on where to best find polar bears, and how to approach them to give you the best sightings, without causing them any discomfort.

What we have also learned is that the Arctic is changing, and changing fast. Generally speaking, the sea ice is diminishing. That is, of course, a big complicated subject but, nevertheless, it is a fact.

Check out this link from this past summer: www.expeditions.com/nbcnews

This is, frankly, very bad news for polar bears as they depend on sea ice to hunt, and build their fat reserves for the long winter. From a traveler’s perspective, however, this results in seeing more of them, as the bears are forced to concentrate in a significantly smaller territory. In fact, this past season we had a staggering 210 sightings.

We were also able to explore parts of the region which were never before accessible, which, of course, was inspiring for all aboard.

So, I would seriously encourage you to explore this magnificent place soon. Ideally, you will choose to do so with us. We know this place better than anyone, and can ensure you a most meaningful experience.

Best regards,

Sven-Olof Lindblad

P.S. Since 2006, renowned environmental photographer James Balog and his Extreme Ice Survey team have produced an historic, definitive look at ice and glaciers, using a complex network of remotely deployed “ice-watching” cameras. His new book Ice: Portraits of Vanishing Glaciers, a visually stunning photo book, shows why ice matters. You will receive a copy with our compliments to help you prepare for a Svalbard expedition this season.
A mere 600 miles from the North Pole, located in Norway’s High Arctic, Svalbard is true wilderness, a pristine blue-white land of towering glaciers, lapidary fjords, teeming bird colonies, huddles of walrus hauled out on pebbled beaches, and reindeer grazing on tundra ablaze with wildflowers.

It is also the best place on the planet to see polar bears — wild, majestic, in their native habitat: the sea ice. And see them we do — during our season in the Arctic ice, we observe all manner of behaviors from hunting for seals amid the floes to frolicking cubs — all viewable from the proximity and safety of our ship’s deck rail.

Over the past 30+ years our ace spotters have given our guests multiple opportunities to experience close sightings. In 2009 we had a seasonal record of 105 bears. In 2010, we observed a staggering total of 229 bears. And in 2011 and 2012, we saw seasonal totals of 156 and 210, respectively. But it’s not the number of bear sightings that count, it’s the quality, and the fact that you can count on us to deliver this extraordinary experience.
Ice bears galore and much more, too.

Arctic Svalbard offers glorious wildlife encounters.

It’s one ‘National Geographic moment’ after another, as the clips below show you. Each is worth more than a thousand words. So, take a look and see why exploring Svalbard is so cool:

With a range of cool tools for exploring, including a fleet of Zodiacs and kayaks to get you out there on up-close, personal adventures, National Geographic Explorer is the perfect mobile platform for discovering all the facets of the fascinating Arctic. A range of daily activity options let you actively explore Arctic icescapes and landscapes, in the company of various interesting Naturalists and Guest Speakers. And Explorer's modernist interior design, with expansive windows everywhere, plus inviting decks, keeps you connected to the Arctic's stunning vistas even when we're underway, off to new points on our adventurous itinerary.

National Geographic Explorer, your base camp for thrilling Arctic adventures

This geography, with its mix of wilderness and civilization, has attracted singular explorers, artists and adventurous travelers for centuries. Experience it yourself — by Zodiac, kayak or on foot — and you'll gain a memory bank's worth of exceptional and original experiences.

Our expedition team reveals the wonders of the Arctic geography

Our dynamic expedition team includes scientists, naturalists and a veteran Expedition Leader with many years of experience exploring the polar regions. With so many experts aboard, you’ll benefit from a vast collection of specialized knowledge — including marine biology, zoology, botany, geology, climate change and more. In addition, our Undersea Specialist dives the Arctic waters with a video camera, or pilots Explorer’s onboard ROV (Remotely Operated Vehicle) to reveal to you — in brilliant HD on the Lounge’s monitors — the astonishing life forms thriving in the polar oceans.

National Geographic Explorer’s ROV is pressure rated to 1,000 feet below the surface of the sea and it is deployed and operated from a Zodiac. Our Undersea Specialists also dive with video cameras; and show us images of the deep’s denizens for playback in the Lounge.

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES PROGRAM

Flanking our expert staff, the Guest Speakers in our Global Perspectives Program add relevant insight and personal experience to the expedition community. And not just at the podium.

Each individual has chosen to join us, specifically to go exploring along with our staff and guests. Whether it’s on walks, over cocktails or during dinner, you’re sure to find mutual ground for interesting conversations. And enjoy, over the course of the voyage, the pleasure of discovering how much you have in common with so many.

JARED DIAMOND. National Geographic Explorer-in-Residence, scientist and a Pulitzer prize-winning author, Jared is best known for his popular science books, including Guns, Germs, and Steel: The Fates of Human Societies and Collapse: How Societies Choose to Fail or Succeed. Jared is a professor of geography at the University of California, Los Angeles. He is the recipient of a MacArthur Foundation Fellowship (Genius Award), and many research prizes and grants including from the National Geographic Society. In addition, he has been elected a member of all three of the leading national scientific/academic honorary societies: National Academy of Sciences, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and American Philosophical Society. CAPTAIN DON WALSH USN (RET), PHD.
Oceanographer, ocean engineer, explorer and retired Navy Captain. Honorary President of The Explorers Club, he was awarded National Geographic’s highest honor, the prestigious Hubbard Medal. For 50 years, Don and his co-pilot held the world record for deepest manned dive in a submersible, a record unbroken until this past year when James Cameron reached the bottom of the Mariana Trench, with Don Walsh on his team of advisors. Don has participated in numerous polar expeditions, including 27 to the Arctic, 5 to the North Pole, and 28 to the Antarctic. In the Arctic, he has traveled extensively in the Canadian Arctic, along the Russian Siberian coast and made five trips to the North Pole aboard Russian nuclear-powered icebreakers. CASEY ANDERSON.
The host of the National Geographic WILD series Expedition Wild, Casey Anderson grew up in Montana, surrounded by wilderness and animals. After college, he became an animal keeper and trainer at wildlife parks. Then a baby grizzly bear named Brutus that was born in an overpopulated wildlife park came into his life. Casey rescued Brutus from being euthanized and built a sanctuary for him, which became Montana Grizzly Encounter, a bear rescue and education facility. Brutus now assists Casey in teaching park visitors about bear anatomy and conservation. Illustrated with riveting images and footage, Casey Anderson will offer an exciting personal account of the lessons he’s learned living and working with wild animals. (June 28, 2013)

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC PHOTOGRAPHERS ON BOARD
There is no clearer symbol of the everlasting connection between expedition and photography than the presence of a National Geographic Photographer aboard every National Geographic Explorer voyage. Travel with these top pros and you’ll pick up tips and advice in incredible field conditions. You’ll share every photo op, and you might just land some cover-worthy shots yourself.

Joining us this season are National Geographic photographers Michael Melford, Kim Heacox, Sisse Brimberg and Cotton Coulson.

Add the luxury of comfort to the privilege of being in the wild Arctic

National Geographic Explorer is a purpose-built expedition ship, designed for maximum safety in polar waters and to perfectly enable our exclusive style of expedition travel — immersive, engaging, insightful and highly active. For many years adventurous travelers seeking to explore the Arctic had few options beyond the spartan accommodations of Russian icebreakers. Now, Explorer's handsomely detailed interiors, gracious hospitality, excellent food, plush linens, and relaxing Wellness Center bring genuine warmth and comfort to the thrill of the starkly beautiful polar landscapes.

LAND OF THE ICE BEARS: AN IN-DEPTH EXPLORATION OF ARCTIC SVALBARD

11 DAYS/9 NIGHTS—ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER
DEPARTURES: 2013 Jun. 7, 14, 21, 28
PRICES FROM: $8,650 to $15,990 (See page 22 for complete prices.)

A high Arctic archipelago situated between Norway and the North Pole, Svalbard is a place of deep fjords, snowcapped mountains, massive sheets of ice, and magnificent polar bears. Travel under the midnight sun aboard the National Geographic Explorer, and experience nature in its purest form.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS
▶ Search for the very symbol of the Arctic—the polar bear—and observe these majestic creatures in their natural habitat, on the sea ice.
▶ Take naturalist-led walks, and cruise among beautiful icebergs in a Zodiac or a kayak.
▶ Experience the legendary midnight sun: the ethereal light of the northern summer, when the sun never sets.
▶ Watch for huge walruses, bearded and ringed seals, arctic foxes, and reindeer.

EXPERIENCE & EXPERTISE
Ace spotters, our veteran expedition leader and 8 naturalists, are your best assurance of seeing polar bears in their native habitat, the ice. Our undersea specialist will reveal the deep, and the National Geographic photographer and LEX/NG-certified photo instructor aboard will see to it that you get your shots, while the video chronicler creates a lasting record of your voyage.
Visit our website for staff bios and see the scheduled guest speakers on the facing page.

Use your smartphone to watch our Arctic Svalbard video.

A polar bear leaps from an ice floe in Svalbard.
DAYS 1 AND 2: U.S./OSLO, NORWAY
Depart on an overnight flight to Oslo. Upon arrival, check into the Continental Hotel (or similar). Explore this charming city, stroll among the famed Vigeland sculptures—hundreds of life-size human figures set in terraced parkland. Visit the Fram Museum, dedicated to the wooden ship sailed by Norwegian explorers Nansen and Amundsen. The evening is free to explore Oslo on your own.

DAYS 3–9: EXPLORING SVALBARD
This voyage is undertaken in the spirit of discovery, and our travel in the archipelago is exploratory by design. In a region ruled not by humans but by polar bears, we let nature guide our course. Svalbard lies north of the Arctic Circle, where the summer midnight sun never sets. With our fully-stabilized ice-class expedition ship, we are able to probe the ice in search of wildlife; our exact day-to-day itinerary remains flexible, depending on local ice and weather conditions. Zodiacs and kayaks take us closer to experience the region’s geologic features and the wildlife that flourish during the summer months.

With our National Geographic photographer and a seasoned naturalist staff, venture to the foot of vast tidewater glaciers, kayak among sparkling icebergs, and explore fjords that split the coastline. Hike through miniature gardens blooming on the tundra; and search the edge of the pack ice for polar bears, walruses, seals, reindeer, and arctic foxes. Nowhere can the polar bear be seen more reliably in its natural environment than here. (B,L,D)

DAYS 10: LONGYEARBYEN/DISEMBARK/OSLO
In Longyearbyen, the largest settlement in Svalbard, disembark and enjoy time to explore. Founded by an American coal executive in 1906, this is one of the northernmost human settlements on Earth. Fly back to Oslo and overnight at the Radisson Blu Hotel. (B,L)

OPTIONAL EXTENSIONS
» Add a five-day pre-voyage extension to Norway’s Fjords, or a four-day post-voyage extension to Iceland. See pages 18-19 or call for details.
NORWAY’S FJORDS AND ARCTIC SVALBARD

18 DAYS/16 NIGHTS—ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER
DEPARTURE: 2013 May 24
PRICES FROM: $13,820 to $25,320 (See page 22 for complete prices.)

Follow Norway’s fjord-carved coast past the North Cape to the icy isles of Svalbard on board the National Geographic Explorer. From the charming town of Bergen, enter the fjord lands, kayaking narrow inlets that slice between towering peaks, visiting fishing villages, and hiking wildflower-strewn islands. Explore Tromsø and Bear Island on the way to the Arctic archipelago of Svalbard, where polar bears prowl and walruses haul out on ice floes and rocky shores.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS
▶ Stroll past medieval wooden houses in Bryggen, a UNESCO site in Bergen.
▶ Discover hidden inlets and cascading waterfalls while kayaking in the spectacular fjord lands.
▶ Learn about the cultures that flourish on the Arctic’s edge.
▶ Spot polar bears and seals on the ice floes of the Svalbard archipelago.

EXPERIENCE & EXPERTISE

Our unparalleled expedition team is key to an in-depth experience, and our generous staff-to-guest ratio of 1:10 means more choice in activities, and more diverse personalities and interests you can gravitate to. An expedition leader, 8 naturalists/historians, a National Geographic photographer, a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor, a Global Perspectives guest speaker, undersea specialist, video chronicler and a wellness specialist all contribute to your experience of the region’s wonders. Visit our website for staff and guest speaker bios.

MAY 24 AND 25: U.S./COPENHAGEN, DENMARK/EMBARK
Depart on an overnight flight to Copenhagen, Denmark. Stop to see the famous Little Mermaid statue before boarding the National Geographic Explorer. (L, D)

MAY 26: RASVAG, NORWAY
Drop anchor at the picturesque village of Rasvag on the island of Hidra. Photograph the sailboats in the harbor, visit the museum, or stop for tea in the Skipperhuset, the “Captain's House.” (B, L, D)

MAY 27: BERGEN
Arrive in Bergen, the gateway to the fjord lands. Ringed by seven hills, this beautiful city was once an important Hanseatic trading center. Discover Bergen’s maritime history on a guided walk of Bryggen, a UNESCO World Heritage site. (B, L, D)

MAY 28: NORDFJORD
Glide through the little-known Nordfjord and travel overland to see the jagged peaks and turquoise lake of Olden Valley. Hike through deep, glacially carved valleys to Briksdal Glacier. (B, L, D)

MAY 29 AND 30: EXPLORING THE FJORDS OF NORWAY
Along the dramatic coast of central Norway, cruise in a Zodiac along vertical rock faces, paddle a kayak past countless waterfalls, and go for a hike with our naturalists. Explore hidden gems such as Melfjorden, a spectacular narrow channel that cuts between high granite cliffs. (B, L, D)

MAY 31: LOFOTEN ISLANDS
Travel among the islets by Zodiac to view Atlantic puffins, razorbills, and guillemots. Stroll through one of the small fishing villages. Cruise into dramatic Trollfjorden, one of the most famous fjords in Norway. (B, L, D)

JUNE 1: TYSFJORDEN
This morning, enter the long fjord of Tysfjorden, where only a few small villages cling to the rocky shores. Explore Hellemobotn and the area’s numerous side channels by Zodiac, kayak, or on foot. (B, L, D)

JUNE 2: TROMSØ
Tromsø is known as the “gateway to the Arctic” because so many Arctic expeditions originated here. Visit the Polar Museum and the Arctic Cathedral, where the unique architecture evokes snow and icebergs. (B, L, D)

JUNE 3 AND 4: AT SEA/BJØRNØYA (BEAR ISLAND)
We now set our sights on the high Arctic, taking advantage of opportunities to explore on our way to Bear Island. Glide a Zodiac into the coves and inlets of this mist-shrouded island, populated by hundreds of thousands of fulmars, kitiwakes, and guillemots. (B, L, D)

JUNE 5-8: EXPLORING SVALBARD
Spend four days searching for walruses, seals, reindeer, arctic foxes, and polar bears among the deep fjords, mountains, and ice sheets of Svalbard. Our itinerary is flexible to allow us to make the most of ice and weather conditions, and wildlife sightings. Shore walks and Zodiac and kayaking adventures bring us up close to untouched landscapes and passing icebergs. (B, L, D)

JUNE 9: LONGYEARBYEN/DISEMBARK/OSLO
Disembark in Longyearbyen, one of the northernmost human settlements on Earth. Visit the Svalbard Museum and the art gallery. Board a charter flight to Oslo. Overnight at the Radisson Blu Airport Hotel. (B, L)

JUNE 10: OSLO/FLY TO U.S. (B)

OPTIONAL EXTENSION
» Add a four-day post-voyage extension to Iceland. See page 19 or call for details.
DAY 1: U.S./FLY TO BERGEN, NORWAY (VIA COPENHAGEN)

DAY 2: BERGEN
Arrive in the lovely Hansa city of Bergen, gateway to the Norwegian fjords. The powerful Hanseatic League once ruled the seas of Northern Europe. Check in to the Radisson Blu Royal, or similar. (D)

DAY 3: BERGEN
Visit the historic Bryggen Wharf and the Hanseatic Museum. Venture into St. Mary’s Church and the rebuilt Fantoft Stave Church, as well as composer Edvard Grieg’s home. Ride the funicular for an extraordinary view. (B,L)

DAY 4: FLÅM RAILWAY/SOGNEFJORD/ULLENSVANG
A must-do on any exploration of the fjordlands, a thrilling ride on the Flåm Railway connects the mountain plateau of Myrdal down 2,838 feet to the town of Flåm. See some of Norway’s wildest and most magnificent scenery.

DAY 5: ULLENSVANG
Set on the shores of Sorfjord, our hotel offers a day of relaxing activities. Kayak or canoe in the fjord, hike the trails, visit the Hardanger Folkmuseum, or simply enjoy the fjord views. (B,L,D)

DAY 6: ULLENSVANG/OSLO
Today’s opening act is the Tvindefoss and Voeringsfossen waterfalls and Lake Oppheim. Continue our scenic drive to Oslo, stopping en route for a visit to a well-preserved Norwegian wooden stave church, built over 800 years ago. Arrive in Oslo and check into the Continental Hotel, or similar. (B,L)

DAY 7: OSLO
This morning is at leisure before meeting the main group. (B)
Day 1: Oslo, Norway/Keflavik, Iceland/Akureyri

Fly to Iceland, arriving in Akureyri. Check in to the Edda Hotel (or similar) where dinner is served. (B, D)

Day 2: Akureyri/Lake Myvatn/Akureyri

The geothermal waters at Lake Mývatn are a sanctuary for bird life. The lava field is dotted with natural sculptures. Return to Akureyri. (B, L, D)

Day 3: Akureyri/Reykjavík

Fly to Reykjavík, capital of Iceland, and transfer to the Centrum Hotel. This afternoon, we explore the city: Alþingi Parliament House, Government House (a former prison, which was built in the 18th century), and the impressive Hallgrímskirkja Church with its 240-foot-high tower are among our stops. (B, L)

Day 4: Golden Circle: Gullfoss and Geysir/Reykjavík

See Iceland’s wild side: glacial waterfalls, rivers and hot springs. Gullfoss Falls thunders. Geysir Hot Springs steam. And at Thingvellir National Park we see nature and history converge: it’s the open-air site of the ancient Parliament. (B, L, D)

Day 5: Reykjavík/Keflavik/U.S.

Morning is at leisure. Opt to spend your time at the famous Blue Lagoon thermal baths. All guests transfer to the Blue Lagoon for lunch, continuing to Keflavik Airport for flights home. (B, L)

Optional Post-Voyage Extension

Iceland’s Natural Wonders

4 Days/4 Nights

2013 Prices*: $3,550 per person double occupancy; $4,090 per person sole occupancy.

*To be added to the voyage cost. International airfare (including Oslo/Keflavik) is not included. Ask for details.

Adds 4 days/4 nights to the voyage.

The “Iceland’s Natural Wonders” extension can be taken after “Land of the Ice Bears” and “Norway’s Fjords and Arctic Svalbard” departures.

Once you’ve seen the land of ice, it only makes sense to see its counterpart: the land of fire and ice—Iceland. Explore Iceland’s hot springs, bubbling mud pools, spouting geysers and massive icecaps and glaciers.

Expedition Highlights

▶ Explore Iceland’s glaciers, waterfalls, hot springs and boiling mud pools.
▶ Stroll the old town of Reykjavik, the world’s northernmost capital.
▶ See nature and history converge at Thingvellir National Park.

Airfare: For all programs, airfare is an additional cost unless otherwise indicated. Sample airfares are subject to change. We will gladly assist in making your air arrangements for a $50 per person service fee.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Reservations: To reserve your place, an advance payment in the amount of $1,000 per person is required at the time of reservation. The per person advance payment amount varies by program, and is outlined in our brochures, as well as on our website. Certain longer voyages may carry additional advance deposit requirements due to high demand for these voyages. Payment is accepted by Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, or by check.

Receipt of your initial payment indicates your acceptance of our complete Terms and Conditions. We require written notice at the time of reservation for any physical condition, diet, or treatment requiring special attention.

Once your reservation is confirmed, we urge you to use your personalized online account for important information to help you prepare for your voyage. Managing your documents online will facilitate fast and accurate communication, and allow you to provide us with pertinent details we require, in order to complete your reservation. Your online account gives you access to your Expedition Guide, which includes valuable information specific to your voyage. You can also use your online account to make easy payments, view recommended flights and reading material, packing list, and so much more.

Final Payment: For expeditions of nine nights or more, final payment is due 90 days prior to departure. Payment schedules may vary for certain longer voyages, due to high demand for these voyages. We reserve the right to cancel your reservation if payment has not been received by final payment due date.

Travel Protection Plan: We strongly recommend that you take advantage of our Travel Protection Plan. This plan offers comprehensive coverage to protect you from cancellation fees, costs incurred due to trip delays/interruption, damaged or lost baggage, medial assistance and evacuation during your travels. Our Travel Protection Plan is available for U.S. and Canadian residents only, and may be purchased any time prior to final payment due date. Travel Protection premiums are non-refundable once plan is purchased.

Smoking Policy: Smoking is allowed only in designated outdoor areas.

Responsibility and Other Terms & Conditions: Certain other provisions concerning, among other things, limitations of Lindblad Expeditions’ and the National Geographic Society’s liability for loss of property, injury, illness or death during the voyage will be provided to all guests on the ship’s ticket sent prior to departure, and are also available on our website at www.expeditions.com/terms, or upon request. By registering for a trip, the guest agrees to all such terms and conditions.

Note: Itineraries and prices listed in this brochure are valid as of publication date, and are subject to change. Under normal conditions, the total expedition cost is guaranteed at the time of booking. However, the published price is determined far in advance of initial departure on the basis of then-existing projections of fuel and other costs. In the event we determine that current costs create an unsustainable financial situation, we reserve the right to pass on these costs to you, to cover such unexpected increases. We will always provide a transparent accounting of the reason for such an increase in costs.

*$150 will be refunded in the form of a Lindblad Expeditions Travel Certificate.

This cancellation policy applies to expeditions as well as pre- or post- extensions. The effective date of a cancellation will be the date on which your cancellation notice is received. Note: Airline cancellation policies vary by carrier, as well as the type of fare used to issue your ticket. Any revisions you make within the cancellation penalty period, such as departure date or choice of voyage, are subject to cancellation fees.

Cancellation policy for certain longer voyages and holiday departures may vary due to high demand for these voyages. Our Group cancellation policies are listed in the Terms and Conditions section of our website, or you may call us for details. We stress the importance of purchasing a travel protection plan to protect yourself from fees in the event you need to cancel your reservation.
