TWO WORLD WONDERS,

ECUADOR

IQUITOS

AMAZON RIVER

Rio Orinoco

PERU

CUSCO

In Iquitos, embark the beautifully appointed, Delfin II, and explore the biodiversity and wonder of the Peruvian headwaters of the Amazon.

Whether you choose Upper Amazon, Land of the Inca, or both, you'll begin and end your journey in lovely Lima, perched above the Pacific—its historic center is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The verdant and temperate Sacred Valley, the 'breadbasket' of the Inca empire, supplied maize, and wealth to Cusco and Machu Picchu.

Machu Picchu, standing in the midst of a tropical mountain forest in the Andes, is extraordinarily situated. With lodgings adjacent to the grounds of this World Heritage site, we'll serenely enjoy its gem-like setting.

Cusco, 11,000 feet above sea level, was named a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1983. The pre-Hispanic patterns and buildings that shaped the Imperial city of the Incas are visible today.

ONE DIVERSE COUNTRY

In 2011, 100 million people worldwide elected the Amazon as one of the New Seven Wonders of Nature and four years prior, in 2007, global citizens voted Machu Picchu one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Both are in the same fantastically diverse country: Peru. And now, you can choose to discover one or both—we offer two enriching itineraries in the region, and if you have the time, they can be effortlessly combined into one 16-night comprehensive land and river experience.

Our Upper Amazon voyage aboard the Delfin II focuses on the Pacaya–Samiria National Reserve—a pristine swath of jungle stretching more than five million acres, and harboring some of the Amazon’s most diverse flora and fauna. Protean in form, this riverine region floods its banks, carves new tributaries, and then retreats to reveal inviting forest clearings and beaches—all in response to Andean snows. The Peruvian Amazon also offers us an unexpected highlight: time with the ribereños (traditional river people).

On our Machu Picchu & Peru’s Land of the Inca adventure you’ll progress from sea level, to the temperate Sacred Valley and descend to Machu Picchu, perched in the eyebrow of the jungle. At Machu Picchu’s moderate elevation, you’ll revel in the soaring vistas, the monumental stone terraces that climb like sinuous staircases to the mountaintops. And once fully acclimatized, you’ll explore high-altitude Cusco, which like Rome or Athens is an imperial city, with its own exquisite architectural legacy.

FALL UNDER THE SPELL OF THE WORLD'S MOST BIODIVERSE RAINFOREST

THE DRAMA OF THE PASSING SCENES. THE THRILL OF THE invisible. There's a sense of enchantment about being out on the Amazon, cruising clear water, stained black with tannins mirroring the sky. A source of life and wonder, the river is also a thoroughfare, with a passing fisherman in a carved dugout, a larger canoe with children on their way to school, and trees so close in these headwaters that you can reach out and touch them.

Actively explore it. Go on one or more outings each day following the lead of a naturalist. Hike, kayak, and explore via three nimble skiffs, custom-made to venture into the flooded forest where wildlife thrives. Eagle-eyed skiff drivers help us develop our jungle eyes—to find the elusive species that make the Amazon so fascinating. We might see pink and grey dolphins feeding while chattering terns dive for prey they've chased to the surface. Or in the brown-water tributaries, spot common squirrel monkeys, a yellow-handed titi; or perhaps a small group of shy monk saki monkeys will show themselves. Or find myriad bird species—like the motmot, striated herons, blue-and-yellow, and scarlet macaws, along with diverse kingfishers, flycatchers, weaverbirds, and more. And once the night curtain drops on a spectacular sunset, a symphony begins, more sonically lush and dense than the world's finest concert halls could contain.

“For the afternoon we stayed out late to look for caimans. We found so much more. From a tropical screech owl to great potoo to two common potoos, one that let us get so close we could almost touch it. Oh yes, and both spectacle and black caiman were found. A great end to another awesome day exploring the Amazon Basin on board the Delfin II.”

THE PERFECT BASE CAMP: DELFIN II

AS MUCH OF THE RIVER AS ON IT AND LOCALLY BUILT, DELFIN II'S iron exterior is clad in tropical hardwoods, and her interior gleams with wood floors and lacquered palm ceilings. Wood stairs floating between decks, and lazily turning ceiling fans add the right tropical notes, while the AC invisibly cools and dehumidifies. The lounge, center of our life as an expedition community, features a welcoming open bar and inviting seating. The dining room is decorated with locally crafted lanterns, hanging over an impressive central buffet table, carved from a massive tree root found floating in the river and installed before the ship's windows were—three walls of windows keep us connected to the non-stop panorama outside. In fact, the prestigious Relais & Châteaux recently inducted the ship into its hotel group, recognizing its commitment to local nature, culture, and its exquisite Amazonian-Peruvian cuisine. And the airy, supremely comfortable cabins are the perfect ending to active days. Slip into bed, well-appointed with crisp, cotton linens, and drift off as you gaze out at the starry night through the generous, river-framing window wall. Our base for daily explorations, and to which we happily return, Delfin II has a distinct advantage over any land-based camp—she moves, giving you an ever-varied experience of the Amazon's multiple landscapes and wonders.

▶ Please find cabin and ship details on page 24.

“Coming to the Amazon you need to be prepared in a lot of different ways. We're going into places that a lot of people never get to. We go up the Ucayali or the Marañón River and then get even farther into small tributaries, what they call blackwater streams which instead of carrying silt they're carrying tannins from the forest. It's fresh out here, the light is just golden. The temperature is perfect, it's effortless—you sit there comfortably with your binoculars and slow down and the Amazon is just wonderful.”

EXPERIENCE THE AMAZON WITH ALL YOUR SENSES

MODERN PERUVIAN CUISINE IS A FUSION OF flavors, a meeting of tastes from the Inca and European, Asian, and African immigrants, all with an emphasis on what is available in this geographically diverse land. As you travel along the Amazon, you experience this internationally acclaimed cuisine (the first to earn a Cultural Heritage of the Americas award) from the comfort of a welcoming dining room, crafted by local artisans. Wake up to a rainbow of fresh-squeezed juices, experience seasonal ingredients relatively unknown outside the region—like the superfood camu camu and the tomato-like cocona—and end your night with chocolate placed on your pillow. Take the recipes back with you, too, as you'll have the opportunity to make ceviche, Peru's national dish, and a pisco sour, its national drink.

MEET EMPOWERED LOCAL ARTISANS & COMMUNITIES

THROUGH OUR PARTNERSHIP WITH INNOVATIVE NONPROFIT Minga Peru, you have the chance to visit and support indigenous women who have developed a sustainable living creating beautiful handcrafts. See firsthand how Minga Peru, with the support of Lindblad-National Geographic travelers like you, has developed a network of local women leaders, known as promotoras, to empower their communities along the Pacaya-Samiria Reserve. Minga developed a successful radio program that broadcasts stories on the production and marketing of handcrafts, leading to a more sustainable living for countless artisans across the Marañón, Ampiyacu and Tahuayo rivers. Minga invites only Lindblad-National Geographic guests into these communities, giving you a highly personal opportunity to talk to these women and their families, and gain a deeper understanding of their day-to-day lives, and how their work has changed their fates.

Co-Founder and Executive Director of Minga Peru, National Geographic Grantee Eliana has worked for over two decades to change lives in the Peruvian Amazon through communications, women's leadership, and sustainable community development.

“Listening to the radio program Bienvenida Salud! has strengthened me and motivates me to continue working as an artisan. Now, I see the value that the artisan work has as an economic impact resource for my family. The visits from guests of Lindblad-National Geographic help us with the sales. This money helps me in many situations like when my son gets sick and I have to buy his medicine or when I need supplies to fix my little house. Being an artisan has helped me in every moment of my life, and that is why I feel proud.”

OUR TEAM IS ACE AT DOING WHAT IT TAKES

BECAUSE YOU DESERVE AN EXCEPTIONAL EXPERIENCE, our team will do whatever it takes—from posting a naturalist on the top deck at all times to scan the jungle for wildlife, hiking at your pace, offering a cooling swim in the river, to deploying kayakers to explore a narrow tributary. Our team has the knowledge and passion for the Amazon that will kindle yours. You'll explore under the expert guidance of a veteran expedition leader, eagle-eyed local naturalists, a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor, and a wellness specialist. One naturalist for every ten guests and a spectrum of specialties—biology, ornithology, ichthyology, and lepidopterology—ensures a daily diversity of interest and personalities for you.

Since our naturalists were born in towns along the riverbanks and educated in schools in Iquitos, you'll enjoy an authentic connection to the people and the cultures of the region. Discover what it was like to have been a child here, or to have the Amazon as your cultural heritage.

WHAT WILL YOU CREATE WITH LINDBLAD-NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC
CERTIFIED PHOTO INSTRUCTORS TO ASSIST YOU?

WHILE YOU'RE EXPLORING THE AMAZON, YOU'LL HAVE THE benefit of a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor (CPI) at your side and at your service. He or she can help you with anything from camera settings to the basics of composition. Now, every guest—from iPhone camera users to advanced hobbyists—can stand side-by-side with skilled photographers, pick up tips in the field, and take great photos. Our CPIs are also trained naturalists, so they'll help you better understand wildlife behavior, too. Whether you're choosing a shutter speed to capture a monkey leaping between treetops in the jungle canopy or shooting a family portrait against a killer backdrop, in-the-moment tips from accomplished pros will help you get your best photos ever.
