GEOGRAPHIC™

Lindblad Expeditions and National Geographic have joined forces to further inspire the world through expedition travel. Our collaboration in exploration, research, technology and conservation will provide extraordinary travel experiences and disseminate geographic knowledge around the globe.

DEAR TRAVELER,

For many, the mere mention of the word Amazon sparks a shiver of delight. There is something thrilling about the word, and its connotations, chief of which is exploration. And as you'll learn ahead, our elegant river ship, Delfin II, is the perfect platform for exploring this massively biodiverse region. It is ideally sized with just 14 cabins—each with an expansive window wall that keeps you connected to the views. Equipped with comfortable, custom-made skiffs that are specially designed to tuck into narrow, canopied waterways, Delfin II is your basecamp for discovering the hidden lakes, and flooded forests of the Peruvian Amazon's wild headwaters.

The jungle at the headwaters of the Amazon lives and breathes. It is an entity unto itself. It is the sound of macaws and toucans flitting through the canopy, not just the sight; the change in temperature and humidity on your skin as the day passes to dusk; the shape-shifting jungle horizon as birds hide for the night and caiman and night monkeys emerge. Our explorations in the region are, appropriately, in-depth and immersive—with rewarding natural history experiences and engaging cultural experiences with the local inhabitants of each area, plus wonderful company aboard ship, excellent meals that highlight regional flavors, and music.

And the Amazon is only part of the draw in this part of the planet.

Peru is a land of abundance, offering today's explorers abundant and exhilarating architectural, archaeological, cultural and geographic discoveries. Even the food is some of the most diverse in the world and certainly the most diverse in South America. Peru is utterly fascinating; the mysterious ruins of Machu Picchu in the new world rival the Valley of the Kings in Egypt. The city of Cusco, capital of the Inca Empire, is a remarkable blend of that culture and the grand architecture of the Spaniards. The Sacred Valley with its verdant fields provided wealth and maize to both Cusco and Machu Picchu.

I have been to Peru many times to work, to photograph and to spend time with my children in this most special of places. You should seriously consider combining both the Andes and the Amazon.

All the best,

Sven-Olof Lindblad

P.S. Our team is uniquely skilled at seamlessly blending our Upper Amazon and Machu Picchu & Peru: Land of the Inca itineraries together into one cohesive experience for you. So, consider making the most of your time in the region to enjoy dual facets of Peru. Elect to experience both, and you'll save 10%, as well.

TWO WORLD ONE DIVE

ECUADOR

AMAZON RIVER

In Iquitos, embark the finest ship on the river, Delfin II, and explore the biodiversity and wonder of the Peruvian headwaters of the Amazon.

PERU

Whether you choose Upper Amazon, Land of the Incas, or both, you'll begin and end your journey in lovely Lima, perched above the Pacific—its historic center is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

LIMA

The verdant and temperate Sacred Valley, the 'breadbasket' of the Inca empire, supplied maize, and wealth to Cusco and Machu Picchu.

Machu Picchu, standing in the midst of a tropical mountain forest in the Andes, is extraordinarily situated. With lodgings adjacent to the grounds of this World Heritage site, we'll serenely enjoy its gem-like setting.

CUSCO

Cusco, 11,000 feet above sea level, was named a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1983. The pre-Hispanic patterns and buildings that shaped the Imperial city of the Incas are visible today.

WONDERS, RSE COUNTRY

In 2011, 100 million people worldwide elected the Amazon as one of the New Seven Wonders of Nature and four years prior, in 2007, global citizens voted Machu Picchu one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Both are in the same fantastically diverse country: Peru. And now, you can choose to discover one or both—we offer two enriching itineraries in the region, and if you have the time, they can be effortlessly combined into one 16-night comprehensive land and river experience.

Our Upper Amazon voyage aboard the Delfin II focuses on the Pacaya–Samiria National Reserve—a pristine swath of jungle stretching more than five million acres, and harboring some of the Amazon’s most fascinating flora and fauna. Protean in form, this riverine region floods its banks, carves new tributaries, and then retreats to reveal inviting forest clearings and beaches—all in response to Andean snows. The Peruvian Amazon also offers us an unexpected highlight: time with the ribereños (traditional river people).

On our Machu Picchu & Peru’s Land of the Inca adventure you’ll progress from sea level, to the temperate Sacred Valley and descend to Machu Picchu, perched in the eyebrow of the jungle. At Machu Picchu’s moderate elevation, you’ll revel in the soaring vistas, the monumental stone terraces that climb like sinuous staircases to the mountaintops. And once fully acclimatized, you’ll explore high-altitude Cusco, which like Rome or Athens is an imperial city, with its own exquisite architectural legacy.

ASTOUNDING ALONE, EVEN BETTER TOGETHER

On their own, these two journeys are nothing short of spectacular, but pairing them makes for an even more rewarding experience—one that blends superb history, culture, natural history, and beauty and allows you to truly maximize your time in the region. Plus, when you combine itineraries you’ll receive a savings of 10%. Our team makes the transition smooth so all you need to do is focus on the unforgettable experience at hand.

FALL UNDER THE SPELL OF THE AM

The drama of the passing scenes. The thrill of the invisible. There's a sense of enchantment about being out on the Amazon, as tropical kingbirds, great kiskadees, and other winged wildlife swoop and call. A source of life and wonder, the river is also a thoroughfare, with a passing fisherman in a carved dugout, a larger canoe with children on their way to school, and trees so close in these headwaters that you can reach out and touch them. And once the night curtain drops on a spectacular sunset, a symphony begins, more sonically lush and dense than the world's finest concert halls could contain. And above the din and the dampening canopy of green, Orion and the Southern Cross illuminate the night sky. Tear yourself away if you can, and you may be able to rise early, to hear the song of the oriole blackbird and chattering parrots with your morning coffee. Choose the private adventure of listening, or take advantage of your naturalists' knowledge—one is always on deck when the ship is underway—to learn fascinating facts as the river flows.

AZON

THE PERFECT BASE CA

As much of the river as on it and locally built, Delfin II's iron exterior is clad in tropical hardwoods, and her interior gleams with wood floors and lacquered palm ceilings. Wood stairs floating between decks, and lazily turning ceiling fans add the right tropical notes, while the AC invisibly cools and dehumidifies. The Lounge, center of our life as an expedition community, features a welcoming open bar, inviting seating. The dining room is decorated with locally crafted lanterns, hanging over an impressive central buffet table, carved from a massive tree root found floating in the river and installed before the ship's windows

▶ PLEASE FIND CABIN AND SHIP DETAILS ON PAGE 20.

Dining is a mirror on the region. From the rainbow of fresh squeezed juices in the morning to the chocolate placed on your pillow each night, most of the ingredients used aboard are sustainably sourced from the surrounding rain forest. And Peru's tradition of flavorful fusion cuisine ensures that each day will offer fresh palate pleasures. Watch the river go by and look for wildlife from the spacious, airy Observation Deck.

were—three walls of windows keep us connected to the non-stop panorama outside. The dining is superb. And the airy, supremely comfortable cabins are the perfect ending to active days. Slip into bed, well-appointed with crisp, cotton linens, and drift off as you gaze out at the starry night through the generous, river-framing window wall.

Our base for daily explorations, and to which we happily return, Delfin II has a distinct advantage over any land-based camp—she moves, giving you an ever-varied experience of the Amazon's multiple landscapes and wonders.

Panoramic windows bring extravagant river views inside the air-conditioned staterooms and enclosed lounge. Cool, beautiful woven rattan sofas in the lounge are perfect for relaxing and watching the riverscapes glide past in the afternoon, and ideal for cocktail-hour recaps, and lively presentations on wildlife photography, medicinal plants in the Amazon, and much more.

EXPLORE THE WORLD'S MOST BIODIVERSE RAIN

We'll actively explore, getting out on one or more outings each day, with each group following the lead of the naturalist, and interest of the guests, not banding together like a bus tour. To discover the intricate networks of the flooded forest we'll board Delfin II's three skiffs, guided by drivers who are agile navigators and eagle-eyed spotters. They help us develop our jungle eyes—to find the elusive species that make exploring the Amazon so fascinating. Cruising clear water, stained black with tannins mirroring the sky, we might see pink and grey dolphins feeding while chattering terns dive for prey they've chased to the surface. Or in the brown water tributaries, spot common squirrel monkeys, a yellow-handed titi; or perhaps a small group of shy monk saki monkeys will show themselves. Or find myriad bird species—like the motmot, striated herons, blue-and-yellow, and scarlet macaws, along with diverse kingfishers, flycatchers, weaverbirds, and more.

"On our way up river today, we watched red howler monkeys leap through the treetops, monk sakis with their very puffy gray fur staring down at us, parrots and macaws flying in pairs or perched high in the trees, several very strange-looking hoatzins, and much, much more!"

—LYNN FOWLER, EXPEDITION LEADER

FOREST

Off our skiffs onto dry land and a trail walk, we might see poison dart frogs, a tarantula, night owl monkeys high in a tree nest, or a young green anaconda in a small pool of water. Huge strangler fig, traveling palm, heliconia and other 'house plants gone wild' will make a definite impression, and create excellent stationary, not fleeting, photo ops.

In addition, we'll have the opportunity to take out kayaks for personal forays in the stillness of narrow caños, as the tributaries in this watery wilderness are known. Swim in a rain forest lake. And, enjoy engaging and personal encounters with the ribereños, the people who make the river their home.

Clockwise from left: Explore the Amazon by skiff; guests hike in the Amazon jungle; swim in the rainforest lake; capped heron; Kayaks offer an intimate way to discover the flooded forest.

EMPOWER LOCAL ARTISANS & COMMUNITIES

Through our partnership with innovative nonprofit Minga Peru, you have the chance to visit and support indigenous women who have developed a sustainable living creating beautiful handcrafts. See firsthand how Minga Peru, with the support of Lindblad-National Geographic travelers like you, has developed a network of local women leaders, known as promotoras, to empower their communities along the Pacaya-Samiria Reserve. Minga developed a successful radio program that broadcasts stories on the production and marketing of handcrafts, leading to a more sustainable living for countless artisans across the Marañón, Ampiyacu and Tahuayo rivers. Minga invites only Lindblad-National Geographic guests into these communities, giving you a highly personal opportunity to talk to these women and their families, and gain a deeper understanding of their day-to-day lives, and how their work has changed their fates.

“Listening to the radio program Bienvenida Salud! has strengthened me and motivates me to continue working as an artisan. Now, I see the value that the artisan work has as an economic impact resource for my family. The visits from guests of Lindblad-National Geographic helps us with the sales. This money helps me in many situations like when my son gets sick and I have to buy his medicine or when I need supplies to fix my little house. Being an artisan has helped me in every moment of my life, and that is why I feel proud.”

—MAGALI TARICUARIMA NASHNATE, 30-YEAR-OLD MOTHER OF 4 FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO COMMUNITY IN THE MARAÑÓN RIVER

MINGA PERU CELEBRATES 20 YEARS

Celebrating its 20th anniversary in 2018, Minga Peru is a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the lives of women and families in rural communities of the Peruvian Amazon through educational programming focused on health, leadership, and the environment. Minga's radio show, Bienvenida Salud! (Welcome Health), which broadcasts up to three times a week, reaches over 120,000 listeners with critical topics such as preventing domestic violence and managing natural resources. In addition, Minga trains promotoras who serve as role models and decision makers in their communities, helping to design and lead income-generating projects—such as fisheries, agroforestry, and handicraft production—that sustain natural resources while increasing economic security. We are proud to support Minga's work through guest donations to the Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic Fund (LEX-NG Fund).

FLAVORFUL FUSION CUISINE

Modern Peruvian cuisine is a fusion of flavors, a meeting of tastes from the Inca and European, Asian, and African immigrants, all with an emphasis on what is available in this geographically diverse land. As you travel along the Amazon, you experience this internationally acclaimed cuisine (the first to earn a Cultural Heritage of the Americas award) from the comfort of a welcoming dining room, crafted by local artisans. Wake up to a rainbow of fresh-squeezed juices, experience seasonal ingredients relatively unknown outside the region—like the superfood camu camu (pictured right) and the tomato-like cocona—and end your night with chocolate placed on your pillow. Take the recipes back with you, too, as you'll have the opportunity to make ceviche, Peru's national dish, and a pisco sour, its national drink.

RENOWNED STAFF & REGIONAL EXPERTISE

Clockwise from top: Carlos Romero, Expedition Leader, Lucho Verdesoto, Expedition Leader, Reninger Coquinche Arevalo, Naturalist, Alberto Montaudon, Naturalist.

A seasoned Lindblad-National Geographic expedition leader and an experienced team of Peruvian naturalists accompany each voyage. Many of the naturalists were born in towns along the riverbanks and educated in schools in Iquitos. All are fluent in English, and their personal knowledge, along with their scientific training makes for a fascinating story, as authentic as it is well informed.

One naturalist for every ten guests and a spectrum of specialties—biology, ornithology, ichthyology, and lepidopterology—ensures a daily diversity of interest and personalities for you.

In addition to local naturalist guides and our experienced expedition leader, you also travel with a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor on every expedition, trained to help you with your camera and how to best capture images of the rain forest and its inhabitants.

EXPERIENCE

We have conducted numerous Amazon expeditions in our history, and launched our first voyage aboard the beautiful, 28-guest Delfin II in August 2010. In order to provide expedition leadership in this pristine region, we tapped our tenured expedition leaders to lead our Amazon voyages, providing our guests with the same in-depth interpretation they find on our other expeditions.

Our veteran team is highly knowledgeable about this region, and trained to illuminate all the discoveries you'll make.

DAY 1: U.S./LIMA, PERU

Arrive in Lima in the late evening and transfer to our conveniently located hotel, Wyndham Costa del Sol Lima Airport Hotel.

DAY 2: LIMA/IQUITOS/NAUTA/EMBARK

After breakfast, fly to Iquitos and continue overland to the riverside village of Nauta, where the Delfin II awaits. Settle into your cabin, and gather for a welcome dinner of fine Peruvian cuisine on board. Tonight, step out on deck to gaze at the magnificent Amazon night sky. (B,L,D)

DAYS 3–8: PACAYA-SAMIRIA NATIONAL RESERVE

Spend this week exploring the Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve, a pristine swath of jungle—stretching more than five million acres, and harboring some of the Amazon’s most fascinating flora and fauna. Bordered by the Marañón and the Ucayali, these two powerful rivers converge to create the famed Amazon, which floods annually with nutrient-rich waters. The Pacaya-Samiria rivers are known locally as the Mirrored Forest for the reflections created by the glassy water.

Set out into this remarkable wilderness on daily excursions by skiff, kayak, and, when the water level permits, by foot on dry land. Skim past giant lily pads afloat on black-water lakes, and venture deep into the rain forest on narrow tributaries. Spot sloths and monkeys, including variably colored saddleback tamarins, noisy howlers, and shaggy-tailed monk saki monkeys. Watch for an astounding variety of birds, from tanagers and hummingbirds to parrots and endangered scarlet macaws. In the river, look for signs of the massive paiche fish, the Amazon’s largest; rare pink dolphins; and the infamous piranhas.

Enjoy an opportunity to swim in a lake in the reserve’s interior. Seek out Victoria amazonica, a giant water lily that grows in small lagoons. Go on a bird-watching hike, listening for the vocal oropendola and then look for its telltale yellow tail. Watch the sun set and listen to a cacophonous symphony of nocturnal animals calling out across the treetops. Then slip through the forest in a skiff as night falls, using a spotlight to find caimans, frogs, fishing bats and other creatures of the night.

One of the unexpected joys of traveling in the upper Amazon of Peru is the interaction we have with the local riberños, the traditional people who live on the riverbanks. Visit one of the communities and see the projects that we support through a local non-profit, including a variety of handicrafts, women’s health initiative and sustainable farming. (B,L,D)

DAY 9: DISEMBARK/NAUTA/IQUITOS/LIMA

Disembark in Nauta, stopping at the Amazon Rescue Center on the drive to Iquitos. Fly to Lima, where we visit Museo Larco and celebrate with a farewell dinner. Overnight at the Wyndham Costa del Sol Lima Airport Hotel. (B,L,D)

DAY 10: LIMA/U.S.

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight home. (B)

ISABELA: Cross the Equator at Volcán Ecuador, northernmost of Isabela's six great shield volcanoes. Keep an eye open for whales and dolphins, sea turtles and the elusive ocean sunfish. Over two days, land in the footsteps of Darwin and Melville, and look for wildlife along the wildly eroded volcanic shore.

FERNANDINA: One of the most active oceanic volcanoes in the world, Fernandina is the youngest and most pristine island in Galápagos—and home to the strange flightless cormorant, Galápagos penguins and the largest marine iguanas. Hikes ashore lead across impressive recent lava flows.

ESPAÑOLA: See swallow-tailed gulls, Española mockingbirds, Nazca boobies and, seasonally, the world's only population of waved albatross at this birdy paradise, also home to vividly colored marine iguanas. Watch sea lions on the wide sand beach, and snorkel offshore, at Gardner Bay.

FLOREANA: Follow a trail past a rose pink-tinted lagoon frequented by flamingos. Snorkel among sea lions and abundant fish, or cruise along Champion Islet by Zodiac. Visit the famous barrel at Post Office Bay.

SANTA CRUZ: Visit Puerto Ayora, the largest town and headquarters of both the Galápagos National Park and Charles Darwin Research Station. See the monument to Lonesome George, and tour the giant tortoise breeding corrals. See the giant tortoises roaming in the wild in the lush, green highlands.

SANTIAGO: Explore tide pools and look for fur seals sheltered in quiet grottos of black basalt. Swim, snorkel, kayak and paddleboard along Santiago's spectacular coast, and explore an enchanting coastal forest where Charles Darwin once walked.

GENOVESA: Sail across the Equator to the remote northern realm of the Galápagos, surrounded by warmer tropical waters.

Kayaking is a popular activity in Galápagos.

SAN CRISTOBAL: Search for red-footed boobies and the endemic mockingbird and lava lizard—found only on this easternmost island, and dig your toes into the powdery white sand at a gorgeous beach fronted by iconic Kicker Rock. Explore Baquerizo Moreno, where sea lions thrive in the middle of town.

Under normal conditions, the total expedition cost is guaranteed at the time of booking. However, the published price is determined far in advance of initial departure on the basis of then-existing projections of fuel and other costs. In the event we determine that current costs create an unsustainable financial model, including but not limited to increases in the price of fuel, currency fluctuations, increases in government taxes or levies, or increased security costs, we reserve the right to pass on these costs to you, to cover such unexpected increases. We will always provide a transparent accounting of the reason for such an increase in costs.
