OUR EXPEDITION
OPENS ICELAND TO YOU

Our Director of Expedition Development, Jen Martin, explains why Iceland is one of her favorite expedition destinations:

“WHEN VISITORS DIVE DEEPER INTO ICELAND, THEY FIND SO much more than they intended or expected. It is one of the few destinations in the world that has a little bit of everything. It’s stunningly beautiful: giant waterfalls; colorful mud pots; brilliant green hillsides; blue, ice-filled lagoons; massive glaciers; and stark, imposing mountains. It seems that most visitors know these things, and nature is often the primary reason that they come. But many only see Reykjavík and its outer environs. While these are worthy destinations, the real heart of the country is in its remote landscapes, vast interior, and hard-to-reach coastal gems. Traveling by ship opens up so many possibilities. It means coming ashore in small towns and villages that were isolated and only accessible by water up until the late 20th century. It means arriving by Zodiac at the base of world-class waterfalls that are hours away from anything if you are arriving by car or bus. It means sailing into fjords from the open ocean and watching them narrow as you approach.”

“Most Icelanders can trace their lineage back to settlement of the country and it’s fascinating to hear them meet one another and discuss how they may or may not be related, as a first topic of conversation.”

—JEN MARTIN, Director of Expedition Development

Above: local Icelanders who will be joining our 2019 Circumnavigation of Iceland departures, clockwise from top left: Hrund Gunnesteinsdottir filmmaker, entrepreneur, & playwright; Silja Ómarsdóttir women’s & human rights advocate; Thóra Arnórsdóttir candidate for Icelandic president in 2012; Sandra Snæbjörnsdóttir carbfix geologist working on mitigating climate change.

A person is lying on their back on a grassy hill in the foreground, looking out over a calm lake. The lake's surface is perfectly still, creating a clear, inverted reflection of the large, dark mountain peak that dominates the background. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue with a few wispy clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic, capturing a moment of quiet reflection in nature.

WE BELIEVE IN CREATING EXPERIENCES,
NOT SIMPLY MEDIATING LOCAL EXCURSIONS

“WE SET OUT FROM REYKJAVÍK AND DROVE ALL THE WAY TO Höfn, covering approximately 1,564 miles. Our main goal was to come up with new ideas and locations where no other ship has gone before—to maximize the guest experience, specifically through up-close, personal, expedition-style opportunities involving kayaking and hiking. We have a lot of experience in Iceland, having conducted successful expeditions for some time. And Sven Lindblad, Jen Martin and Jacob Edgar have really developed the kinds of relationships that take our guests deep inside. Now, we can further re-shape the experience for our guests, replacing locations where all the other companies go with genuine discoveries: fascinating, remote places that our small ship, equipped for exploring, enables us to reach. So, more adventurous exploring, fewer encounters with tour buses and other tourists. While our guests will still experience the iconic sites everyone wants to see, they’ll discover unimagined aspects of the country, too. I can’t wait to show them gems like Vigur Island, bursting with summer life. Puffins on rocks with mouths full of fish. Black guillemots nesting in rock walls. Arctic terns dive-bombing our ‘tern deterrent’ flagsticks held overhead, while humpbacks surface in the near distance.”

—LUCHO VERDESOTO, Expedition Leader

“Reconnaissance missions are the heart of what we do, the sweat equity that’s built into our expeditions. While it would be easier to sit at HQ with maps, atlases and a list of ground operators to set up excursions, we believe in exploring. Because Iceland is so visited, it’s particularly challenging to find unique and thrilling opportunities for our guests. So we sent out veteran Expedition Leaders Lucho Verdesoto and Peter Wilson to hone our expeditions. This is a glimpse of their mission and what excites them.”

VOLCANOES AREN'T THE ONLY HOT SPOTS IN ICELAND, THE MUSIC SCENE IS TOO

WITH A POPULATION OF JUST OVER 300,000 PEOPLE, ICELAND has had an outsized influence on global music. As the world's fascination with it has grown, Iceland's musical reputation has also played a part in the country's tourism boom. Travel with us in 2019 and you will hear some of Iceland's leading musicians. Our ethnomusicologist, Jacob Edgar, has curated an exceptional line-up, and each Iceland itinerary will feature performances by at least two artists from this list.

HAUNTING HARMONIES: YLJA, comprising two female singer/guitarists, performs moving melodies in Icelandic.

STORIES AND SONGS: Known for his charming stage persona, SVAVAR KNÚTUR weaves compelling tales about rural Icelandic life.

AN ETHEREAL EXPERIENCE: Singer-songwriter MYRRA RÓS is known for her exquisite voice and enthralling live shows.

CLASSIC YET MODERN: ÁRSTÍÐIR blends classical influences with folk rock and chamber pop, sending audiences on a compelling journey.

NORTH STAR: Hailing from a valley in northern Iceland, singer/songwriter ÖSP ELDJÁRN is known for concerts of striking emotional power.

“I have focused on young Icelandic singers and songwriters who are incorporating their rich folk traditions into new, hip contexts. Icelandic music is full of haunting melodies and harmonies that seem to capture the mood of cold winds blowing across harsh, volcanic landscapes and the glistening magic of northern lights. These are songs born from the ancient sagas and folk tales of witches, goblins and elves that roam the countryside. Music, like wine, has a “terroir,” an innate quality that reflects the environment in which it was cultivated, and Iceland music will fill your soul with a sense of place.”

OUR ICELAND TEAM IS ACE AT DOING WHAT IT TAKES

THE VIKING EXPLORERS HAVE NOTHING ON YOU—YOU'RE A natural born discoverer, too. But sometimes even the most intrepid adventurers need a guide, and that's where we come in. Our team has the knowledge and the passion for Iceland that will kindle yours. And our generous staff-to-guest ratio means you can gravitate to the naturalists whose personalities and interests match yours. They will do whatever it takes, from manning the spotting scopes so you don't miss a single passing whale; lingering as long as you want on deck to watch and photograph puffins feeding or a glimpse of the Northern Lights; to offering scenic Zodiac rides, hiking at your pace, or hot chocolate to mitigate the glacier ice. They'll help you to see, do, and absorb all the extraordinary experiences—in comfort, with inspiration, great conversations, and excellent dining included.

“For decades now, the feedback we consistently get from guests includes raves about our expedition teams. They are not merely knowledgeable, passionately committed to exploring, and dedicated to assuring you unforgettable opportunities, they're also fun—genuinely interesting and engaging individuals whose companionship will greatly enhance your experience. Be sure to take advantage of our large team to mix it up, and gravitate to those whose interests and personalities match yours.”

—SVEN LINDBLAD
CEO, Lindblad Expeditions

YOU'RE ON THE EDGE WHERE EUROPE MEETS THE ARCTIC, FEEL FREE

EACH DAY, WE PROVIDE A FRESH SET OF OPPORTUNITIES, all kinds of choices of what to do. Hike, Zodiac cruise and more. Hang out on deck with binoculars or with your photo instructor. But should you decide to sleep in, have a slow breakfast, and get a massage, nobody will look at you funny. You're on vacation. Your vacation. Our schedules are flexible and our itineraries more a function of what's to see than where we need to be. So, if you want to work up a sweat on your walk, bike, hit the gym, or sit and breathe it all in—do it. It's your adventure. Our generous staff-to-guest ratio means you can always find a naturalist whose interests and approach you share. You're free to explore the ship, find your nook or cranny. And always welcome to come up to the bridge and shoot the breeze with the Captain and officers.

Our Iceland extensions give you the opportunity to explore more. Have uncommon, only-in-Iceland experiences, like strolling deep inside an ice cave (depicted at left) and more. Choose to add on to your voyage—to see, do and learn more!

Our idea of group travel means never being herded like cattle. Each day, you choose what activities interest you, which members of the expedition team you want to join, and which other guests may become lifelong friends. You may all be on the same ship but you aren't in the same boat.

WHAT WILL YOU CREATE WITH NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC
PHOTOGRAPHERS TO INSPIRE YOU?

AN ADVENTURE THAT'S THE SUM OF FASCINATING PARTS

ICELAND'S GEOLOGY IN ALL ITS MANIFESTATIONS—

glaciers, thundering waterfalls, immense cliffs, geothermal springs, boiling mud pots, and rock and lava-scapes of unearthly beauty—is world-class and far flung, making a circumnavigation a very compelling way to see more. Iceland's culture, one of its most surprising characteristics, is unique. Icelandic people, including those who'll travel with us, are no-nonsense yet warm and welcoming, with a deep reverence for wild places and the solace that they bring. The Icelandic musicians who will perform for us are superb.

- ▶ And now, in addition to our 11-day circumnavigation, we offer an 'excellent escape,' a 6-day voyage that combines with your choice of five optional extensions—to create a personalized Iceland adventure, pages 18-19.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

- Explore Iceland's pristine fjords and fascinating tundra, accompanied by a dedicated team of naturalists
- Encounter evidence of volcanic activity as we hike over cooled lava fields and view Iceland's newest isle, Surtsey
- Discover the rich biodiversity of the remote Westfjords, spotting nesting puffins and gannets on the Látrabjarg cliffs and watching for humpback and minke whales in the surrounding waters
- Choose your own adventure on one of six optional trip extensions, from a hiking excursion across Iceland's untamed highlands to an exploration of the Snæfellsnes Peninsula's epic natural wonders.

- ▶ Visit expeditions.com/iceland for complete itinerary.

FJORD EXPLORER

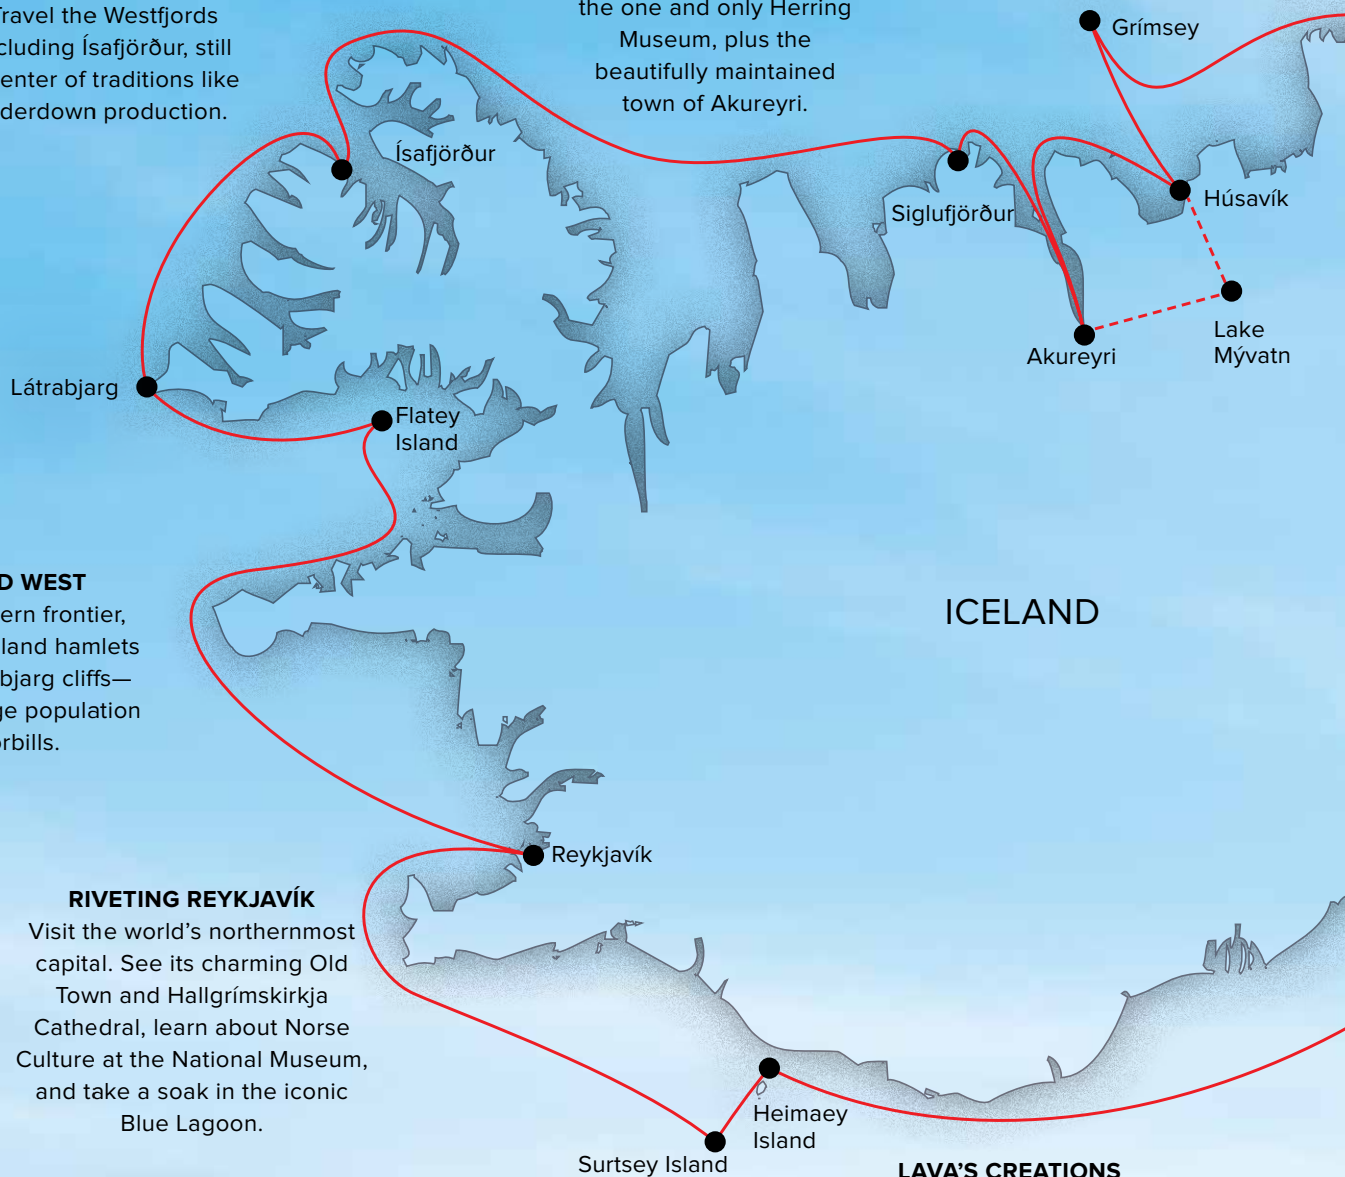

Travel the Westfjords including Ísafjörður, still a center of traditions like eiderdown production.

HERRING AND HISTORY

Siglufjörður: Experience the one and only Herring Museum, plus the beautifully maintained town of Akureyri.

ALL-STAR GEOLOGY

Mývatn brings boiling mud pools, an explosion crater at Krafla, and Goðafoss the waterfall of the Gods. Make an official crossing of the Arctic Circle at Grimsey.

THE WILD WEST

Sail the western frontier, with remote island hamlets and the Láttrabjarg cliffs—home to a huge population of razorbills.

RIVETING REYKJAVÍK

Visit the world's northernmost capital. See its charming Old Town and Hallgrímskirkja Cathedral, learn about Norse Culture at the National Museum, and take a soak in the iconic Blue Lagoon.

ICELAND

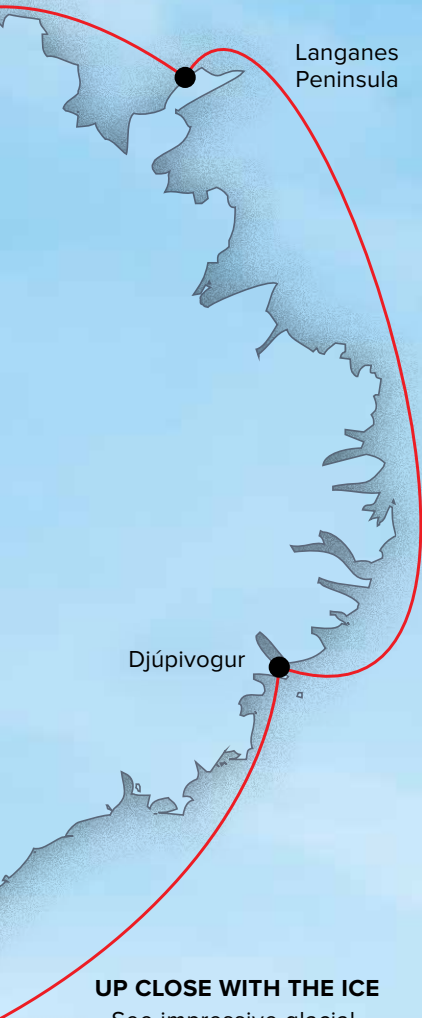

LAVA'S CREATIONS

See the world's newest island—forged by a volcanic explosion in 1963—and walk on a crater where the earth is still hot.

THE PICTURESQUE EAST

Join naturalists for hikes and Zodiac cruises around Iceland's rugged east coast.

Langanes Peninsula

Djúpivogur

UP CLOSE WITH THE ICE

See impressive glacial-topped peaks and visit one of Iceland's largest glacial lagoons, filled with deep blue bergs.

EXPERIENCE SUPERB
COMFORT & THE TRUE
TASTES OF ICELAND

RESPONSIBLE FOR LAUNCHING THE FIRST- ever farm-to-table program in Galápagos, our Director of Hotel Services, Ana Esteves, is bringing her fresh approach to Iceland. Committed to sustainable seafood and regional produce, our culinary program is rooted in the relationships we're developing with local farmers and providers. Fresh dayboat fish, and seasonal produce. Berries from coastal farms, and local craft beers—the food on our ships opens new windows on Iceland for you. The exhilaration you feel at seeing breaching whales and thundering waterfalls? Our dedicated galley team feels it too, and their excitement is in every meal they serve, nourishing your mind, body and spirit, and creating daily discoveries, plus convivial conversation.

ICELAND IN CONTEXT

WHILE TECHNICALLY A SUB-ARCTIC GEOGRAPHY, Iceland self-identifies as an Arctic nation, seeing its climate fate inextricably bound to that of its northern neighbors. The following expeditions, aboard our new ship, National Geographic Endurance, launching in 2020, offer an exceptional perspective on Iceland's Nordic context and communalities—from a Viking heritage, to hardy, independent and innovative cultures. See how they differ, too—from the presence or absence of ice to the wildlife. Find complete day-by-day itineraries and more at expeditions.com/Arctic

ARCTIC EXPLORATION: A VOYAGE TO ICELAND, EAST GREENLAND & NORWAY

Make your way from Iceland's Westman Islands to remote Jan Mayen and Norway's picturesque villages spotting geothermal activity, huge seabird populations and Greenland's big ice along the way.

COASTAL WONDERS OF NORWAY, THE FAROE ISLANDS & ICELAND

Follow the Viking trail from Norway's fjord lands and the Lofoten Islands, to stone-age sites in Scotland and the turf-roofed cottages of the Faroes. Then explore Iceland's geologic wonders from volcanoes to epic waterfalls.

EAST GREENLAND: WILD SHORES OF THE HIGH ARCTIC

Explore the largest national park in the world in northeast Greenland and continue the theme of massive ice, crevasse-laced glaciers, mountains and more, as you head towards the Reykjavík finale via Iceland's coastal Vigur and Flatey Islands.

ICELAND'S WILD WEST COAST TO EAST GREENLAND

Towering bird cliffs, meadows carpeted in wildflowers, and jaw-dropping waterfalls, plus the massive Northeast Greenland National Park to search for polar bears, musk oxen and more. Enter the Scoresbysund fjord system, and, conditions permitting, capture the Northern Light displays with your National Geographic photographer.

INCLUSIVE PRICING

RESERVATION INFORMATION

Terms & Conditions: For complete terms and conditions please visit www.expeditions.com/terms

Costs Include: All accommodations aboard ship or in hotels per itinerary or similar; all meals and nonalcoholic beverages* aboard ship; meals on land as indicated accompanied by nonalcoholic beverages; air transportation where indicated as included; shore excursions; sightseeing and entrance fees; special access permits; transfers to and from group flights; use of snorkeling equipment and wetsuits (where applicable); use of kayaks and/or stand-up paddleboards (where available); use of cross-country skis or snowshoes (where available); tips (except to ship's crew*); taxes and service charges; services of a ship physician and services of our expedition staff. Unused services or items included in our programs are non-refundable.

*All departures aboard National Geographic Endurance and National Geographic Explorer, include alcoholic beverages aboard ship (excepting certain super-premium brands) and tips to the ship's crew.

Not Included: Air transportation (except where shown as included), extensions, passport, visa, immigration fees, meals not indicated, travel protection plan, items of a personal nature, such as internet access, voyage DVD, laundry.

Airfare: For all programs, airfare is an additional cost unless otherwise indicated. Sample airfares are subject to change. We will gladly assist in making your air arrangements for a $50 per person service fee.

Reservations: To reserve your place, an advance payment is required at the time of reservation. See page 27 for individual itinerary details.

Final Payment: For expeditions National Geographic Endurance and National Geographic Explorer, payment is due 120 days prior to departure.

Payment schedules may vary for certain longer voyages, due to high demand for these voyages. We reserve the right to cancel your reservation if payment has not been received by final payment due date.

Travel Protection Plan: We strongly recommend that you take advantage of our Travel Protection Plan. This plan offers comprehensive coverage to protect you from cancellation fees, costs incurred due to trip delays/interruption, medical assistance, and damaged or lost baggage, and provides medical assistance and evacuation during your travels. Our Travel Protection Plan is available for U.S. and Canadian residents only, and may be purchased any time prior to final payment due date. If you are not satisfied for any reason, you may return your plan within 10 days after purchase. Your premium will be refunded if canceled within 10 days, provided you have not already departed on the trip or filed a claim. When so returned, the coverage under the plan is void from the original date of purchase.

Responsibility and Other Terms & Conditions: Certain provisions concerning, among other things, limitations of Lindblad Expeditions' and the National Geographic Society's liability for loss of property, injury, illness or death during the voyage will be provided to all guests on the ship's ticket sent prior to departure, and are also available on our website at www.expeditions.com/terms, or upon request. By registering for a trip, the guest agrees to all such terms and conditions.

Note: Itineraries and prices listed in this brochure are as of publication date and are subject to change. Under normal conditions the total expedition price is guaranteed at the time of booking. However, our expedition pricing is determined far in advance of initial departure on the basis of then-existing projections of fuel and other costs. In the event of increases in those costs, including but not limited to increases in the price of fuel, currency fluctuations, increases in government taxes or levies, or increased security costs, we reserve the right to adjust the price of your expedition or add a surcharge to cover such unexpected increases. We will always provide an explanation of the reason for increase in costs.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation penalties may apply after payment is received. Please visit www.expeditions.com/terms for complete cancellation policies.
