DISCOVER THE JOY OF WILD ANIMALS SIMPLY LIVING THEIR LIVES IN FRONT OF YOU ON AN AFRICAN SAFARI, YOUR GUIDES HAVE TO WORK HARD to ensure you’ll spot one of the often-elusive ‘big five’ species.
In Galápagos, no binoculars required. Chances are, your naturalists will have to route you around the charismatic endemic species that cross your path, graze beside you, take a break, or take a nap pretty much anywhere they want. There’s always fascinating behavior to observe and learn about—courtship, nesting, raising young, feeding, defending territory and more.
And because Galápagos’ animals don’t fear humans, you’ll have a rare experience of closeness—literally and figuratively. You could visit Galápagos 50 times, as Sven Lindblad has, and see something new each time, any time of the year.

Travel with us, and our 50+ years of experience guarantees you exciting opportunities every day. As do our two ships. Choose the yacht-scaled 48-guest National Geographic Islander, or the 96-guest National Geographic Endeavour II. With different personalities to suit a range of different travel tastes, both are equally well-equipped for getting you out on thrilling, personal explorations, and rewarding you with comfort and amenities.

Galápagos National Park and Charles Darwin Foundation were established 60 years ago this year—on the centennial of the publication of Darwin’s Origin of Species. And since the beginning, we have been an active partner in conservation. Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic guests have donated more than $8.7
million to important conservation, education, and research priorities in Galápagos. When my father came to Galápagos in 1967, he was astounded that the animals showed no fear of humans. The fact that you can have the exact same experience today is no accident—it’s thanks to these enlightened organizations.”

COME TO GALÁPAGOS ASSURED
YOU’LL SEE WHAT’S PROMISED & RELY ON US TO SEE EVEN MORE
HOW DO YOU GET TO HAVE THE MOST FUN NATURE PROVIDES?

It happens because your entire crew is dead-set on creating unforgettable experiences for you. It happens because your captain, your expedition leader and the naturalists are joined at the hip when it comes to capitalizing on the opportunities that nature might present.
It happens because your entire team is committed to doing what it takes so you can have spontaneous experiences, in addition to all the planned ones. And it happens because your entire expedition team is in love with Galápagos, knows what the best experiences are, and makes sure you have them. After all, you didn’t come all this way to miss one moment of natural wonder: you came to get as close as possible. And catching the attention of balletic and playful sea lions while snorkeling in Galápagos waters is about as good as it gets. Can you laugh with a snorkel firmly cupped in your mouth?
Yes, it happens every day here! It’s a comedy, alright. And you’re front row for the show.

We just had an off-the-charts experience: snorkeling with bottlenose dolphins in the channel between Santiago and the Bainbridge islets! I had a small group of experienced snorkelers, including Kathryn & Anneka M. at Sombrero Chino.
We were just getting out of the water, my panguero spotted the dolphins and off we went!
We were able to jump in among them multiple times. Fantastic.
We called the ship, and two more Zodiacs came out, so some of the others also had a look. But, by luck, those in my boat had an incredible half hour swim with dolphins! There was even a mother with a tiny, curious baby!”

— LYNN FOWLER

Legendary expedition leader Lynn Fowler is retiring. A Galápagos naturalist since 1978, Lynn has made her home aboard National Geographic Islander since 2004. Deeply connected to Galápagos, Lynn is being honored in the same year we celebrate the 60th Anniversary of the Charles Darwin Foundation and the Galápagos National Park. And please plan to join Lynn in her last year!
YOUR EXPEDITION TEAM IS ACE AT DOING WHATEVER IT TAKES
IN MANY RESPECTS, GALÁPAGOS DOESN’T EXIST UNTIL YOU discover it. When you step off our ship, it’s as if it’s 1835 and you’re Charles Darwin, disembarking the Beagle to explore the unexplored. But sometimes even the most intrepid of adventurers need a guide—and that’s where we come in. Our team has the knowledge and the passion for Galápagos that will kindle yours. And our generous staff-to-guest ratio means you can gravitate to the naturalists whose personalities and interests match yours. They will do whatever it takes, from maintaining a lookout so you don’t miss a passing whale; offering an extra snorkel when sea turtles are congregating nearby; or pausing on a walk, as it happens, to witness the birth of a sea lion pup. They’ll help you to see, do, and absorb all the extraordinary experiences—in comfort, with inspiration, great conversations, and excellent dining included.

“It’s absolutely amazing to me what the staff is willing and able to do to make each day extraordinary. We didn’t just get to see Sierra Negro volcano erupting, that was amazing enough. We had a “LAVA BBQ” on deck, so everyone could enjoy the spectacle and have an incredible dinner too. Then the captain arranged with the naturalists and hotel staff to stay in the area, so that we could see and photograph the spectacle again at dawn. It was so exciting on every level. Impressive!”

— JAKE W. GUEST
YOU’RE EXPLORING GALÁPAGOS WITH THE FREEDOM TO ENJOY IT YOUR WAY

EACH DAY, WE PROVIDE A FRESH DESTINATION PLUS all kinds of choices of what to do. Hike, paddleboard, kayak. Snorkel, arrange to dive, hang out with your photo instructor. But should you decide to sleep in, have a slow breakfast, and get a massage, nobody will look at you funny. You’re on vacation. Your vacation. Our schedules are flexible and our itineraries more a function of what’s to see than where we need to be. So, if you want to work up a sweat on your walk, snorkel every time it’s offered, (often two times a day) or sit and breathe it all in—do it. It’s your adventure. Our generous staff-to-guest ratio means you can always find a naturalist whose interests and approach you share. You’re free to explore the ship, find your nook or cranny. And always welcome to come up to the Bridge and shoot the breeze with the captain and officers.

We enable Scuba divers to experience Galápagos’ diverse marine life, by arrangement with a local dive operation. Available to intermediate and advanced divers with recent experience, diving is available on select National Geographic Endeavour II departures, at an additional cost. Speak with an Expedition Specialist for dates and details.
WHAT WILL YOU CREATE WITH LINDBLAD-NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC CERTIFIED PHOTO INSTRUCTORS TO GUIDE YOU?
WHILE YOU’RE DISCOVERING GALÁPAGOS, YOU’LL HAVE the benefit of a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor (CPI) at your side and at your service. He or she can help you with anything from camera settings to the basics of composition. Now, every guest—from iPhone camera users to advanced hobbyists—can stand side-by-side with skilled photographers, pick up tips in the field, and take great photos.

THE MOST EXHILARATING DISCOVERIES ARE THE ONES YOU MAKE TOGETHER

EXPLORE THE ENCHANTED ISLANDS WITH THE COMPANY BEST ADAPTATED TO REVEAL THEM

1.800.EXPEDITION (1.800.397.3348)
ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES YOU WILL FIND FOUR WAYS TO experience Galápagos. Our classic 10-day itinerary (pg. 19) provides an optimal balance of terrain and wildlife, and a thoroughly rewarding immersion in the islands’ magic. If you wish to see all the sites, you could join for two weeks, but be assured: you will see key islands and wonders whether you opt for a 10-day expedition or stay longer. Best of all, there is no ‘better’ week in Galápagos—just nuances from one week to the other. And for the most fascinating experience of the region’s natural and cultural treasures, you can choose our Galápagos + Peru itinerary, a 16-day adventure (pg. 23).

We’ve learned that a shorter timeframe is very important for some travelers. So, we designed our Wild Galápagos Escape (pg. 21) to provide the same experience, just in less time. Or pair a compact Galápagos expedition with a visit to Machu Picchu in just 9 days on our Wild Galápagos & Peru Escape (pg. 25).

And there’s more: see the other experiences you can add on, before or after your Galápagos expedition. See pages 26-27 for details.
