DEAR TRAVELER,

Antarctica is easily one of the most exhilarating adventures on Earth. And if you are fortunate enough to have the time or the spirit, it's also one of the most festive holiday locations on the planet. And we do have cabins still available for December 2019, for celebrating the season of lights or ringing in the New Year. So, I hope you can take advantage to make incredible memories this holiday.

As you'll see ahead, each year our Antarctica seasons provide remarkable opportunities—to explore the planet's most remote, magisterial and little-known continent; and to venture further into the Southern Ocean—to South Georgia and the Falklands. Depending on your departure, you might set foot on a frozen ocean, kayak in a berg-ringed inlet, observe research scientists at work, achieve a record 'furthest South', or buy stamps from the most remote post office on Earth. On select departures, you'll have the opportunity to participate in Citizen Science. As a matter of fact, see the Q&A with Jimmy White, who's heading our program; I think you'll find it interesting—at expeditions.com/blog. And on every departure, you'll also have the option to brave a polar plunge, and take your best photos ever with the assistance of a top National Geographic photographer.

Starting in 2020, you'll have your choice of three superb polar ships, as our new National Geographic Endurance makes her Antarctic debut—with an extraordinary itinerary, as you'll see inside (pages 38-39). And she will also offer our Journey to Antarctica and Antarctica, South Georgia and the Falklands itineraries.

No matter which adventure you choose, there's never a dull moment. You'll get out there every day, for active encounters with the place and its wildlife. Our expert team will do whatever it takes to ensure you an unforgettable experience, including our skilled videographers—we've invested in having one on every voyage to chronicle your adventure, so you can go home with an amazing record.

Come with us to reach Antarctic locations we've charted and explored for over 50 years and discover new ones. Spend the most festive holiday of your life, or simply experience the charge that comes from seeing the wild, unexpected, rare, and beautiful.

All the best,

Sven-Olof Lindblad

BE IN ANTARCTICA THIS YEAR!

Antarctica, South Georgia & the Falklands

Nov. 19, 2019 - National Geographic Orion

Because we're coming to you later than normal with a previously unscheduled departure, please accept the benefit of free airfare. Now you can enjoy everything Antarctica has to offer, all you have to do is bring spontaneity and decisiveness to going. Book now. See page 36 for details.

A DAY IN THE LIFE

6:00 AM

EARLY RISER ACTIVITIES/7:00 AM STRETCH CLASS

Fresh pastries and coffee served. Guests enjoy stunning views of the Danco coast from the warmth of the Observation Deck, or head to the Bridge, scanning for wildlife and watching the Officers navigate through ice. Our Wellness Specialist leads guests in a morning stretch routine.

7:20 AM

KILLER WHALES SPOTTED "WAVE HUNTING"

The ship changes course so guests can be where the awesome is. For more than two hours guests stay on deck observing a pack of four killer whales "wave hunt" a seal on an ice floe, a rare phenomenon—rivaling Rocky for fist-pumping spirit—because the seal escapes! You have to watch this video: expeditions.com/whale_hunt

9:15 AM

MORNING EXPLORATIONS BEGIN

Guests may opt to do one, or multiple, activities as we anchor in Neko Harbor. Guided by a naturalist, hikers may choose a short stroll to view a gentoo penguin colony, or hardier types may make a rigorous climb. Simultaneously, kayakers depart for water-level discoveries.

12:30-1:30 PM

LUNCH IS SERVED

While polar explorers may have suffered from a limited menu on their expedition, our guests certainly do not. Breakfasts are lavish buffets, with custom omelet stations and smoothies for those who like to orchestrate; lunch is an equally diverse buffet; and dinner is artfully prepared, plated and served by a superbly hospitable staff.

OF ANTARCTICA

1:45-2:30 PM

PRESENTATION

Guests gather in the lounge for a presentation by our expedition team on “The Antarctic Expeditions of Scott, Shackleton and Amundsen” followed by a lively Q&A session.

2:45-5:00 PM

AFTERNOON EXPLORATIONS

Discover something unexpected daily. In the early season, the Ice Master may “park” the ship in the fast sea ice so that guests may have the once-in-a-lifetime thrill of disembarking onto a frozen sea! The expedition team takes guests cross-country skiing, or snowshoeing, or for short walks. Our most intrepid guests may choose to do the “Polar Plunge Challenge.”

5:30-6:00 PM

PHOTOGRAPHY TALK

Our National Geographic photographer and/or Lindblad-National Geographic Certified Photo Instructor leads guests in a short presentation on how to use that most pervasive of cameras, the smart phone.

6:30 PM

COCKTAILS AND EVENING RECAP/DINNER

A Lindblad ritual, guests regroup after a thrilling day over cocktails and hors d'oeuvres to hear our naturalists present highlights of the day. Today the undersea specialist shares video from today's dive; the marine biologist answers questions about the killer whale hunting behavior observed; and the geologist speaks on the extraordinary landscape. Dinner is then served.

9:30 PM

“MIDNIGHT” ZODIAC CRUISE

Because the evening “sunset” is painting the glaciers hues of brilliant pink and the skies a fiery orange, the Expedition Leader invites all guests for a final Zodiac cruise to soak up the scenery and photo ops—and the hotel Zodiac delivers hot toddies.

“People advised us to go in January, it was peak time, etc., etc. But we came to our own conclusion and went in November. We were a little concerned that we’d miss the good stuff. HA! Because of the ice conditions at the time of the season, and thanks to the skill of the captain and expedition team, we had the most amazing experience. The captain nosed the ship firmly into the fast ice—the ship’s power was pretty exciting—and parked it. Then, the expedition team invited us down the gangway onto a frozen sea. People went crazy—it was pretty heady! They were making snow angels, taking photos. Some headed off on skis, others on foot. It culminated in champagne and a BBQ on a frozen ocean, at the bottom of the world, next to a parked multi-ton expedition ship. You can’t make something like this up.”

ULTIMATE POLAR EXPEDITION SHIPS

National Geographic Explorer and our new National Geographic Endurance are both purpose-built expedition ships, whose designs are informed by 50-plus years of Lindblad Expeditions' polar experience. National Geographic Orion is also a purpose-built expedition ship, commissioned in 2004 and constructed to traverse vast expanses of the Southern Ocean, from the tropics to the polar reaches. National Geographic Explorer and Orion are ice-class polar vessels, with DNV Ice 1A, ice-classed hulls. National Geographic Endurance has the highest ice class of any polar passenger ship, plus the patented X-bow® for the smoothest most comfortable ride. Each ship, equipped with state-of-the-art exploration tools, is an unparalleled base for explorations. And, each is supremely welcoming, with unique interior designs, incorporating careful attention to details and comfort. National Geographic Explorer accommodates 148 guests in 81 outside-facing cabins; National Geographic Orion, 102 guests in 53 outside-facing cabins; and National Geographic Endurance, 126 guests in 69 outside-facing cabins, including 56 standard cabins and 13 suites. All three ships enable the fullest expression of our signature style: an intimate, learning-oriented expedition environment.

Captain Leif Skog.

The captains of the Lindblad-National Geographic fleet are extraordinary mariners. For example, Leif Skog, Lindblad VP of Marine Operations and Master of the National Geographic Explorer, has been navigating vessels in Antarctica nearly every season since 1979 on over 200 polar voyages. As Chairman of the IAATO Marine Committee (Int'l Assn. of Antarctic Tour Operators), he was a primary architect of the IAATO Emergency Contingency Plan for all vessels operating in Antarctica.

Guests stand at the bow of National Geographic Orion for unparalleled views.

OUR TEAM IS ACE AT DOING WHAT IT TAKES

Our expedition leaders, known as ELs to staff and guests alike, are outstanding leaders who attract and inspire the naturalists, biologists, marine biologists, zoologists, and undersea specialists who return each year, like migratory creatures, to the Southern Ocean aboard National Geographic Explorer, National Geographic Orion, and soon National Geographic Endurance—to share the Antarctic ice with you and your fellow guests. Collectively, these specialists have hundreds of years of experience guiding travelers to the most interesting places in the world.

Passionate about the geographies they explore, our naturalists illuminate each facet of the Antarctic through their enthusiasm and knowledge. Our guests consistently cite the expertise and engaging company of our staff as key reasons to repeatedly travel with us. More than guides, they are engaging companions, joining you at meals as well as on walks and Zodiac and kayak forays. Our industry-leading ratio of 1 expedition staff to 10 guests on our ships ensures that you'll have a variety of interests and personalities to choose from on daily activities. You are never herded into large groups, you can gravitate naturally to the staff member whose expertise interests you most.

WHAT WILL YOU CREATE WITH PHOTOGRAPHER?

National Geographic Explorer, National Geographic Orion and National Geographic Endurance are the only expedition ships exploring Antarctica with National Geographic photographers aboard every departure. These photographers, many with significant careers to their credit, have inspired countless professional and amateur photographers, and accompany our ships to inspire and assist you. And, they are flanked by Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructors, who are also skilled naturalists to assist you with your camera settings, the basics of composition, observation, and more to equip you with skills.

Now, every guest—from iPhone camera users to semi-pro shooters—can stand side-by-side with top photographers, pick up tips in the field, and take great photos. And you'll want to—Antarctica provides a photo op a minute and a once-in-a-lifetime experience to capture. So no worries, you don't have to consider yourself a photographer to participate in the fun and rewards of "aim & create." You'll return home with your best photos ever, and a lifelong skill.

IT'S A PENGUIN PARTY

Adélies. Chinstraps. Gentoos. Emperor penguins wandering to the coast from their distant inland colony. King penguins in South Georgia. And macaroni penguins in the Falklands. These are the riveting, often raucous, denizens of the Southern Ocean. Meet and greet three to six of the world's penguin species. Visit their rookeries and see all manner of fascinating behavior over the arc of our season there. Whether they're courting, nest-building and feeding chicks, "porpoising" (propelling themselves from the sea), or squabbling, you will delight in their antics and marvel at their adaptation to life on the ice.

Penguins' unique coloring is called countershading. To predators looking down from above, the penguins' black backs help them blend into the dark ocean. To predators looking up from underwater, the penguin's white belly blends in against the light sky and snow.

THE THRILL OF THE ICE

The ice art of Antarctica is among the world's singular sights. The Antarctic ice sheet is the most distinctive feature of Earth as seen from space—every astronaut's account mentions it. And the ice is what makes every Antarctic explorer vow to return. There's a whole glossary of ice words to learn—macro-scale terms like fast ice and more granular terms like brash and bergy bits. Ice is visually stunning, and nearly kaleidoscopic in its diversity of form. But what's exhilarating to discover is the ice's voice. Sitting in a stilled kayak, listening to the subtle sibilance of thousand-year-old gases releasing from a bobbing field of floating bergy bits is like eavesdropping on Earth's whispered secrets. Ice fever: it's a thing. Don't say we didn't warn you.

“Despite our 50 years of exploring here, on January 21, 2018, we achieved a historic first—we went further south than any Lindblad-National Geographic expedition, and further south than any non-icebreaking ship. We got deep into Marguerite Bay, down to a point adjacent to the Terra Firma Islands. This meant crossing the Antarctic Circle—and jubilantly sounding the ship’s horn. We made several excellent landings in the area, including the first visit to Stonington base this season. We brought the UKAHT (UK Antarctic Heritage Trust) restoration team aboard for recap and dinner, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. Overall, a fantastic “exploring” experience.

THE EXHILARATION OF DIS WITHOUT HYPOTHERMIA

Because the undersea is vital to your understanding of Antarctica, we've committed the technology and personnel resources to offer what no other travel company in Antarctica does—an exploration of the vivid and surprising world beneath our ship.

During the voyage, an undersea specialist will don special polar diving gear to explore and shoot video of the Antarctic marine environment and its otherworldly creatures. You'll get to see this amazing world on TV screens in the warm comfort of the lounge, with our undersea specialist as your guide. You'll see what lies beneath the ice and discover strange and wonderful life forms. In some cases, our specialists have photographed specimens not known to scientists. See the life lived on Antarctica's ice, and the marine life found deep beneath the surface.

▶ GO DEEP INTO THE ANTARCTIC UNDERSEA AT EXPEDITIONS.COM/GO_DEEP

COVERY

Undersea Specialist surrounded by brash ice after a dive in Port Lockroy, Antarctica.

The Antarctic undersea is surprisingly colorful, shown here a group of sea stars feeding together. Our undersea specialists will reveal the marine world to you aboard our three polar ships. Each is equipped with an ROV (Remotely Operated Vehicle) capable of exploring depths up to 1,000 feet, well beyond the limits of our human divers. Here our ROV crosses paths with a leopard seal.

ACTIVELY EXPLORE EVERY DAY, IN MANY WAYS

Our Antarctic itineraries are crafted by explorers, and every itinerary point features opportunities to head out and discover, in one dynamic way or another. You can begin each day with a morning stretch class, or a pre-breakfast coffee at the 24/7 coffee/tea stations on each ship. And you can look forward to going ashore to explore a penguin colony, Zodiac tours in icy fjords, and opportunities to kayak, cross-country ski or snowshoe depending on the season, location and conditions. Our fleet of Zodiacs and kayaks, plus our teams' swiftness in deploying, ensures that you will spend no time wistfully awaiting a turn. For those whose fitness requirements demand it—the Fitness Centers are open at any time of day or night, particularly useful in Antarctica, where the midnight sun blurs distinction!

CROSS-COUNTRY SKI & SNOWSHOE THE SEVENTH CONTINENT IN NOVEMBER

Join your ski guide on a snowshoe hike or cross-country ski outing across the frozen sea ice—or use them to blaze your own trail. Weather permitting, available only on November voyages. It's a thrilling way to experience this vast landscape.

Clockwise from top: Exploring amid the bergs via Zodiac with narration by a naturalist; hikers head up for spectacular views of the polar wilderness; a fleet of stable kayaks allow for personal exploration; explorers cross-country ski out on the frozen sea in November. Inset: an exuberant guest takes the polar plunge challenge.

WHAT WILL YOU CONTRIBUTE

Science has long played an outsized role in Antarctica. Nations have had to prove their commitment to scientific research since the Antarctic Treaty came into force in 1961. Now you can be part of the science heritage in Antarctica.

In 2019 we are bringing citizen science to the world's most remote places. Both National Geographic Explorer and National Geographic Orion offer an incredible platform for collecting information. Now, assisted by onboard naturalists, you'll have the opportunity to join a naturalist-led BioBlitz to collect and contribute data on species on our South Georgia expeditions. Simply spot and photograph flora or fauna with your camera or smartphone. Then, your naturalist will upload them to iNaturalist.org. The data will then be freely available to researchers, conservationists and governments for review.

BioBlitzes aim to record and identify every living plant and animal at a key site we visit during the expedition. This information will directly inform the management of invasive species by the South Georgian Heritage Trust as they seek to preserve this iconic ecosystem. Following the overwhelming success of our 2018 effort, this year BioBlitzes will occur on our South Georgia & the Falklands departures (Oct. 23, 2019 and Mar. 6, 2020) and on our Antarctica, South Georgia & the Falklands departures (Nov. 7, 2019 and Feb. 15 & 17, 2020).

AS A CITIZEN SCIENTIST?

“With Citizen Science expedition travel, we are asking for something much more valuable than a financial contribution. We’re asking people for their time and attention. We are asking them to volunteer, collaborate, and contribute on large, sometimes global projects. This creates opportunities for them to meaningfully contribute to the understanding of the environments we visit. It’s a deeper level of engagement, and the memories created are moving...”

— Dr. Jimmy White, Marine Biologist and Lindblad Citizen Science Coordinator

▶ HEAR MORE FROM JIMMY WHITE AT EXPEDITIONS.COM/BIO_BLITZ

Here's to your achievement!

More and more people are doing it: opting to test their personal mettle by taking the polar plunge. And, our complimentary Polar Plunge patches celebrate their exhilarating experience. Will your Antarctica parka sport a Plunge patch, or will you simply enjoy our sauna without the preceding icy dip?

TRAVEL WITH MICROSOFT AND NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC GRANTEE HEATHER LYNCH IN 2019

Heather Lynch was among eleven changemakers selected to receive Microsoft and National Geographic AI for Earth Innovation Grants to apply artificial intelligence (AI) to help understand and protect the planet. Travel with Grantee Heather Lynch in 2019 on these departures aboard National Geographic Explorer: Dec. 17 & 27, 2019.

Hotel Manager Patrik Svärmyr welcomes you aboard National Geographic Explorer.

SUPERB DINING AHEAD

National Geographic Explorer, National Geographic Orion and National Geographic Endurance share matching appetites for adventure and dining excellence. Each ship's Executive Chef brings menu concepts, collectively designed with guidance by our Director of Hotel Operations, Ana Esteves, to life daily. Count on them to keep your expeditionary spirit fed, so to speak, and for daily diversity and regional flavors. National Geographic Endurance offers additional innovations: Restaurant Two Seven Zero°, C. Green for early riser breakfasts and lighter fare, plus a Chef's Table for a fresh take on private dining.

Stocking for our Antarctic voyages is a joy for our wine steward, since we provision the ships in Argentina and Chile, producers of world-class wines. Prepare to taste the best of the Southern Hemisphere.

Dining rooms on all ships, like Orion's shown here, are inviting and informal. No assigned seating makes for easy mingling with congenial fellow guests, expedition staffers, and special guests. Breakfast and lunches are often buffet-style; dinners are artfully plated and served. Save room for dessert—extraordinary daily!

“Discovering sustainable local growers and fisheries on our itineraries to ensure that our guests ‘taste’ the regions they’re exploring is rewarding work. We provision for Antarctica in Argentina with fresh produce and sustainably produced meat and poultry. Unlike cruise companies which mandate a food program across the fleet, our chefs have the freedom to execute Serge’s smartly conceived dishes while taking advantage of what’s at hand. When a local fishing boat hails our ship with line-caught fish, for example, the chef can say yes! And when our ship is in the Falklands, we can obtain fresh vegetables from a hydroponic grower we know, and fresh lamb from an island rancher we’ve known for years. Our goal is for our guests to experience the geography through the food served aboard wherever possible. And to always dine extraordinarily well.”

— Ana Esteves, Director Hotel Operations, Lindblad Expeditions

Clockwise from top: Expedition Leader Russell Evans conducts a presentation from the 'circle of truth,' a hallmark of our expeditions and the design of our ships' lounges; National Geographic Orion's observation lounge and library provide a welcome to readers, card players, and sailors who love to review the nautical charts on display; National Geographic Endurance's C. Green restaurant offers early riser breakfasts and lighter fare at lunch and dinner; a classic Swedish sauna, facial, or massage makes the Wellness Spa a perfect way to take advantage of transit time at sea; National Geographic Explorer's fitness center offers a panoramic view instead of the usual gym TV screens; and expansive decks invite you outdoors to relax, read and observe the vistas.

THE LUXURY OF COMFORT FAR OUTSIDE YOUR ZONE

Our three polar ships, the finest base camps an explorer could want, allow us to freely roam. They are equipped with a fleet of Zodiacs and kayaks for up-close and personal explorations. The Bridge is welcoming, inviting you to spend time with the Captain and officers, watching the calm business of navigation unfold. Our expedition ships are also equipped for living well. The lounge, dining room and other public spaces contribute to the esprit de corps that is a hallmark of our expeditions. A fully stocked library serves those who want to learn more or curl up with a best-seller. The wellness center, gym, sauna, and stretching sessions with our wellness specialist boost the tonic of wilderness nature provides. And cossetting cabins, outfitted with our signature linens and feather duvets provide the perfect ending to active days.

EXPERIENCE & EXPERTISE

Our dedicated staff is key to your experience. Representing diverse expertise, our knowledgeable expedition team allows for more activities and interests to which you can gravitate. An expedition leader, numerous naturalists/historians, a National Geographic photographer, a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor, undersea specialist, video chronicler, and a wellness specialist all contribute to your experience of the wonders. And a Global Perspectives guest speaker adds relevant insight (Explorer only).

DAYS 1 AND 2: U.S./BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA (NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER & NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC ENDURANCE) OR SANTIAGO, CHILE (NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC ORION)

Depart on an overnight flight to Buenos Aires or Santiago. Settle into the Alvear Art Hotel (or similar) before seeing the city's Beaux-Arts palaces and the famous balcony associated with Eva Perón. Or check into the Mandarin Oriental Hotel (or similar) before our guided overview of this vibrant city backed by the inspiring Andes. (Day 2: L)

DAY 3: FLY TO USHUAIA/EMBARK

Fly by private charter to Ushuaia, the southernmost city in the world. Enjoy lunch on a catamaran cruise of the Beagle Channel before embarking. (B,L,D)

DAY 4: AT SEA/DRAKE PASSAGE

While crossing the legendary Drake Passage, spot albatross and other seabirds that glide alongside the ship. (B,L,D)

DAYS 5–10: EXPLORING ANTARCTICA

With long hours of daylight at this time of year, we have ample opportunity to explore the Antarctic Peninsula and the surrounding islands. In keeping with the nature of an expedition, the schedule is flexible so that we can take advantage of the unexpected—watching whales at play off the bow, taking an after-dinner Zodiac cruise, or heading out on an unplanned excursion. We anticipate offering opportunities each day to hike, kayak among the ice floes, and experience close encounters with wildlife. You may have the thrill of watching our powerful ship crunch through the pack ice, or step ashore to thousands of Adélie and gentoo penguins. You'll learn how climate change affects the penguin populations, and how best to capture images of penguins from a National Geographic photographer. Back aboard, our undersea specialist may present video from that day's dive or show rare images taken up to 1,000 feet below the surface using our ROV. Our expert staff will craft an expedition where you will learn, see, and experience more. (B,L,D)

DAYS 11 AND 12: AT SEA

Enjoy the ship's amenities as the coast of Antarctica disappears from view. Round the southernmost tip of South America, and see the meeting of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Celebrate your voyage at a farewell dinner on board. (B,L,D)

DAYS 13 AND 14: DISEMBARK

USHUAIA, ARGENTINA/BUENOS AIRES (EXPLORER & ENDURANCE) OR SANTIAGO, CHILE (ORION)/U.S. Disembark in Ushuaia. Fly by charter to Buenos Aires or Santiago and connect with your overnight flight home. (Day 13: B,L)

SOUTH GEORGIA & THE FALKLANDS

19 DAYS/16 NIGHTS—ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER

PRICING FROM $17,940 (See pages 44-45 for details.)

Steeped in Shackleton and whaling lore, covered mostly in glaciers, South Georgia explodes with life: gentoo and king penguins, enormous elephant seals and a thriving fur seal population. Here on South Georgia you can observe one of the world's great wildlife spectacles: literally tens of thousands of stately king penguins on a single beach. The Falkland Islands are equally impressive, with colonies of nesting albatross and rockhopper penguins. This British Territory also adds a human element, with remote settlements and people living off the land.

King penguin colony, South Georgia.

DAYS 1 AND 2: U.S./BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

Depart on an overnight flight to Buenos Aires. Settle into the Alvear Art Hotel (or similar) before seeing the city's Beaux-Arts palaces and the famous balcony forever associated with Eva Perón. (Day 2: L)

DAY 3: FLY TO USHUAIA/EMBARK

Fly to Ushuaia, the southernmost city in the world. Enjoy lunch on a catamaran cruise of the Beagle Channel before embarking. (B,L,D)

DAY 4: AT SEA IN THE SOUTH ATLANTIC

Settle into shipboard life, listening to informal discussions from our naturalist staff to prepare for the wildness in the Falklands. Spend time on deck and on the bridge, scanning for petrels, penguins and albatross. (B,L,D)

Blue-eyed shags, Falkland Islands.

DAYS 5 AND 6: FALKLAND ISLANDS

Each Falkland Island is a variation on the theme of topographical beauty with white-sand beaches, vaulting cliffs, windswept moors, and the sunlit yellows and sage greens of waving tussock grass. The Falklands boast thousands of irresistible gentoo, rockhopper and Magellanic penguins, as well as magnificent albatross and fur seals. Walk along wildlife-filled beaches, meander through tussock grass or sit atop a cliff and ponder the views. (B,L,D)

DAYS 7 AND 8: AT SEA

During our days at sea, we learn about the fascinating history of Antarctic exploration, as well as the flora, fauna and geology of South Georgia. Our naturalists help identify the seabirds that follow us: wandering albatross, prions and black-browed albatross. (B,L,D)

DAYS 9–15: SOUTH GEORGIA ISLAND

Explore the spectacular coastline of South Georgia Island. In keeping with the nature of an expedition, our schedule is flexible with opportunities for walking, hiking, kayaking and Zodiac excursions. Sailing along the coast, we plan to offer activities every day including visits to Grytviken, the final resting place of Shackleton, and Stromness Harbour, where Shackleton, Tom Crean and Frank Worsley finally reached aid at a whaling station. See huge elephant seals, and on a single beach, you will see thousands of king penguins! (B,L,D)

DAYS 16 AND 17: AT SEA/FALKLANDS

With whales beneath and birds above, head up to the bridge, or spend these days enjoying the ship's spa, fitness center, library, and observation deck. After time at sea, our journey across the South Atlantic Ocean takes us once more to the island archipelago that teems with nature. Our afternoon visit to Port Stanley offers a chance to see the human face of the islands, to meet the hospitable locals, hoist a drink at a local pub, and stroll around this remote colonial town. (B,L,D)

DAYS 18 AND 19: DISEMBARK STANLEY, FALKLANDS/FLY TO SANTIAGO, CHILE/U.S.

After breakfast, disembark in the Falklands capital city of Stanley, and transfer to the airport at Mount Pleasant for our private charter flight to Santiago to connect with your overnight flight home. (Day 18: B,L)

EPIC ANTARCTICA VOYAGE: THE PENINSULA TO THE ROSS SEA & BEYOND

35 DAYS/32 NIGHTS—ABOARD NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC ENDURANCE

PRICING FROM $48,800 (See pages 42-43 for details.)

This extraordinary new voyage is like a blockbuster film—the star is the seventh continent. And the co-stars are the big ice of remote West Antarctica, where we are sure to set foot on ice where no other humans ever have; the prolific wildlife and impressive ice shelf of the Ross Sea region; and the sub-Antarctic islands of New Zealand and Australia, World Heritage sites for the thousands of seals and millions of penguins here. This is wildness and wildlife at its finest. Following in the footsteps of Scott, Ross, Amundsen and Shackleton, perhaps only a few thousand people in the history of the planet have ever made this voyage. And the opportunity we're offering is too good to pass up. Two departures only.

YEARS

Our dedicated staff is key to your experience. Representing diverse expertise, our knowledgeable expedition team allows for more activities and interests to which you can gravitate. An expedition leader, numerous naturalists/historians, a National Geographic photographer, a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor, undersea specialist, video chronicler, and a wellness specialist all contribute to your experience of the wonders.

Observe the endemic royal penguin, 500,000 pairs!

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Discover four stunningly beautiful wilderness regions aboard the ultimate polar ship, National Geographic Endurance, with a top expedition team.
- ▶ See the big tabular icebergs of the Antarctic Peninsula, remote West Antarctica, and the spectacular Ross Ice Shelf.
- ▶ Explore the seldom-visited sub-Antarctic islands of New Zealand and Australia, UNESCO sites that are havens for wildlife.
- ▶ Paddle a kayak in pristine bays, and Zodiac cruise amid the bergs. Snap photos with a National Geographic photographer by your side.
- ▶ Observe: endemic royal penguins, gentoo and southern rockhopper penguins, and 100,000 pairs of king penguins on a single beach.

DAYS 1 AND 2: U.S./BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

Depart on an overnight flight to Buenos Aires. Settle into the Alvear Art Hotel (or similar) before seeing the city's Beaux Arts palaces and the balcony made famous by Eva Perón. (Day 2: L)

Fly to Ushuaia, the southernmost city in the world. Enjoy lunch on a catamaran cruise of the Beagle Channel before embarking. (B,L,D)

DAY 4: AT SEA/DRAKE PASSAGE

Settle into shipboard life, listening to talks from our naturalists to prepare for the wildness ahead. (B,L,D)

DAYS 5-9: EXPLORING ANTARCTICA

With 24 hours of daylight, we make the most of our time exploring the Antarctic Peninsula and surrounding islands. Our schedule allows us to take advantage of the unexpected—veering off course to watch whales perform off the bow or enjoying an after-dinner Zodiac cruise. We anticipate opportunities to hike, explore by Zodiac or kayak, and experience close encounters with wildlife every day. (B,L,D)

Guests kayaking.

DAYS 10-17: WEST ANTARCTICA

Your Captain will look for spots to “park” the ship in the pack ice to experience the thrill of disembarking onto a frozen sea—for ice walks, cross-country skiing forays, and snow-shoe hikes. The undersea specialist will capture images from the deep. And, there will be time to relax in the library, head up to the Bridge, unwind in the sauna or yoga studio, and hear talks from our staff. (B,L,D)

DAYS 18-25: EXPLORING THE ROSS SEA & ROSS ICE SHELF

Following in the wake of 19th-century Antarctic explorers, marvel at the Ross Ice Shelf, the world's largest, roughly the size of France. Stop at small islands to hike, spot colonies of Adélie penguins, and explore by Zodiac and kayak. We plan to visit Coulman Island, where we're likely to see emperor penguins, the largest penguin species. (B,L,D)

DAYS 26 AND 27: AT SEA (B,L,D)

DAYS 28-30: MACQUARIE ISLAND, AUSTRALIA/AT SEA

South of the New Zealand mainland lie the wild and rarely-visited sub-Antarctic islands. Explore Macquarie Island, a UNESCO World Heritage site home to thousands of seals and millions of penguins including 500,000 pairs of endemic royal penguins. Land on a beach thronged with 100,000 pairs of king penguins. (B,L,D)

DAYS 31-33: NEW ZEALAND'S SUB-ANTARCTIC ISLANDS

Spend three days discovering New Zealand's sub-Antarctic islands and their surrounding waters—the entire marine landscape is designated a World Heritage site. Enjoy special permission to explore these islands, considered a “bird central” among top ornithologists.

Emperor penguins.

See the rocky Snares Islands, home to over a hundred bird species. Explore the larger Auckland Islands, with rich flora, prolific birdlife and a fascinating human history. Conditions permitting, cruise by Zodiac to Enderby Island to watch New Zealand sea lions and keep an eye out for rare yellow-eyed penguins. On our final day aboard, gather to toast our epic voyage at a festive farewell dinner. (B,L,D)

DAYS 34-35: DUNEDIN, N.Z./ DISEMBARK/AUCKLAND/U.S.

Disembark on New Zealand's South Island in Dunedin, known for its Victorian and Edwardian architecture. Fly to Auckland, where we overnight at the Sky City Grand Hotel (or similar). Transfer to the airport the next day for flights home. (Day 34: B,L,D; Day 35 B)

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC PHOTOGRAPHERS

All Antarctica voyages travel with a National Geographic photographer. To date, Maria Stenzel will join the Dec. 27, 2020 departure.

Whether you've flown from the east coast, the west coast or somewhere in-between, it took time to arrive at the threshold of Antarctica and beyond. Why simply turn around and head home with those glorious memories—when this stellar region offers you rich opportunities to make more? Our Expedition Specialists will help you add the optional extension of your choice, and arrange for a seamless transition for you. Enjoy time in sun-warmed Buenos Aires or Santiago before your voyage. Or stay on the theme of 'spectacular' with a visit to Iguazú Falls, or Easter Island after. These experiences will amply reward your time and curiosity.

ADD BUENOS AIRES

PRE-VOYAGE/2 DAYS/2 NIGHTS

2019/20*: $1,950 per person, double occupancy.

Explore vibrant Buenos Aires on a curated two-day extension that showcases the city's beguiling personality. See its famous Beaux-Arts architecture, and the brightly painted bohemian communities of La Boca and San Telmo, with their cafés, galleries, and street art. Visit top museums, and take in an authentic tango performance. Add it before National Geographic Explorer and select National Geographic Endurance voyages on Antarctica; Antarctica, South Georgia & the Falklands; South Georgia & the Falklands; and Epic Antarctica.

ADD SANTIAGO CITY, WINE AND CULINARY HIGHLIGHTS

PRE-VOYAGE/2 DAYS/2 NIGHTS

2019/20*: $2,390 per person, double occupancy.

Note: Availability limited by guest minimums.

Get a taste for Santiago's world-famous cuisine at premier restaurants, and venture into wine country for tastings at Chile's top wineries. Visit Santiago's charming neighborhoods, backed by the spectacular Andes, and then head outside the city for private tours of historic wineries, meeting the winemakers. Available for National Geographic Orion voyages only on Antarctica; and Orion and select Explorer and Endurance voyages of Antarctica, South Georgia & the Falklands.

ADD IGUAZÚ FALLS

POST-VOYAGE/3 DAYS/3 NIGHTS

2019/20*: $2,870 per person, double occupancy.

Taller than Niagara, Iguazú Falls' monumental Devil's Throat thunders 350 feet down into a river canyon—an incredible display of power. Get close on catwalks to experience the raw force and noise of the cascades. Stay at the only hotel within Iguazú National Park, a rainforest teeming with unique flora and fauna. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR SPECIAL OFFERS

FREE AIRFARE—BOOK BY OCT. 31, 2019: On select departures with free airfare offers, airfare is based on economy group flights, and must be ticketed by Lindblad Expeditions. In the case that Lindblad's group or charter flights are no longer available at time of booking, we reserve the right to issue a credit. All offers are valid for new bookings only, subject to availability at the time of booking, and may not be combined with other offers and pre- and post-extensions. Call for details.

COMPLIMENTARY BAR TAB & CREW GRATUITIES: On all National Geographic Explorer, National Geographic Endurance, and National Geographic Orion voyages, we will cover your crew gratuities and bar tab (excepting certain super-premium brands of alcohol).

BACK-TO-BACK SAVINGS: Save 10% on any consecutive journeys taken aboard National Geographic Explorer, National Geographic Endurance, and National Geographic Orion. This saving is applicable on voyage fares only, and is not valid on extensions or airfare.

TRAVELING AS A GROUP: Save 5% when traveling as a group of 8 or more people. Take advantage of these great savings, while enjoying traveling with your friends and family. This saving is applicable to voyage fares only, and is not valid on extensions or airfare. Deposit, final payments, and cancellation policies for group travel vary from our regular policies.

BRINGING THE KIDS: We believe sharing an expedition with your kids or grandkids is a life-enhancing experience. So, take $500 off for each child under the age of 18.

COMBINING OFFERS: Certain offers may be combinable, up to two savings opportunities except where noted otherwise. For example, travel with a group of 8 or more on back-to-back expeditions, and take advantage of both savings!

CONSIDERING ANTARCTICA?

There are 6 important questions to ask before you decide with whom to book your Antarctic adventure. This guide answers them all:

1. What kind of ship is best?
2. What safety features are vital?
3. What is the travel operator's experience?
4. How active will your Antarctic experience be?
5. What does the travel operator offer in terms of staff and onboard experts?
6. What is their environmental record & commitment to conservation?

Antarctica is the wildest, most remote and least predictable geography on earth. However, because many cruise lines, sensing a business opportunity, have begun to offer voyages to Antarctica, many travelers may be lulled into a false sense that Antarctica is now somehow "tame."

This guidebook was designed to give travelers information they can use to sort out the options. It will help you make the choice that will best ensure your safety and the quality of your experience.

RESERVATION INFORMATION

Terms & Conditions: For complete terms and conditions please visit www.expeditions.com/terms

Costs Include: All accommodations aboard ship or in hotels per itinerary or similar, all meals and beverages aboard ship (excepting certain super-premium brands of alcohol), meals on land as indicated accompanied by non-alcoholic beverages, air transportation where indicated as included, shore excursions, sightseeing and entrance fees, special access permits, transfers to and from group flights, use of kayaks, tips (including gratuities to ship's crew), taxes and service charges, services of a ship physician and services of our expedition staff. Unused services or items included in our programs are non-refundable.

Not Included: Air transportation (except where shown as included), extensions, passport, visa, immigration fees, meals not indicated, travel protection plan, items of a personal nature, such as e-mail, voyage DVD, laundry.

Airfare: For all programs, airfare is an additional cost unless otherwise indicated. Sample airfares are subject to change. We will gladly assist in making your air arrangements for a $50 per person service fee.

Reservations: To reserve your place, an advance payment is required at the time of reservation. See pages 43, 45 and 47 for individual advance payment amounts.

Final Payment: For expeditions aboard National Geographic Endurance, National Geographic Explorer and National Geographic Orion, payment is due 120 days prior to departure. Payment schedules may vary for certain longer voyages, due to high demand for these voyages. We reserve the right to cancel your reservation if payment has not been received by final payment due date.

Travel Protection Plan: We strongly recommend that you take advantage of our Travel Protection Plan. This plan offers comprehensive coverage to protect you from cancellation fees, costs incurred due to trip delays/interruption, medical assistance, and damaged or lost baggage, and provides medical assistance and evacuation during your travels. Our Travel Protection Plan is available for U.S. and Canadian residents only, and may be purchased any time prior to final payment due date. If you are not satisfied for any reason, you may return your plan within 10 days after purchase. Your premium will be refunded if canceled within 10 days, provided you have not already departed on the trip or filed a claim. When so returned, the coverage under the plan is void from the original date of purchase.

Responsibility and Other Terms & Conditions: Certain provisions concerning, among other things, limitations of Lindblad Expeditions' and the National Geographic Society's liability for loss of property, injury, illness or death during the voyage will be provided to all guests on the ship's ticket sent prior to departure, and are also available on our website at www.expeditions.com/terms, or upon request. By registering for a trip, the guest agrees to all such terms and conditions.

Note: Itineraries and prices listed in this brochure are valid as of publication date, and are subject to change. Under normal conditions, the total expedition cost is guaranteed at the time of booking. However, the published price is determined far in advance of initial departure on the basis of then-existing projections of fuel and other costs. In the event we determine that current costs create an unsustainable financial model, including but not limited to increases in the price of fuel, currency fluctuations, increases in government taxes or levies, or increased security costs, we reserve the right to pass on these costs to you, to cover such unexpected increases. We will always provide a transparent accounting of the reason for such an increase in costs.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation penalties may apply after payment is received. Please visit www.expeditions.com/terms for complete cancellation policies.
